

ESDC Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert at the European Security and Defence College

Project Manager - digital solutions and e-learning

CO-FINANCED

AD-level post

Job No 303107 (republished)

We are

As set out in Council Decision (CFSP) 2020/1515 of 19 October 2020, the mission of the European Security and Defence College (ESDC) is to provide training and education in the field of the EU's Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP) in the wider context of the European Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), in order to develop and promote a common understanding of CFSP and CSDP among civilian and military personnel and to identify and disseminate best practice on CFSP and CSDP-related issues through its training and education activities.

The ESDC works under the overall responsibility of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy (HR). The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the HR in the exercise of his mandate, which consists of conducting and implementing an effective and coherent EU CFSP, representing the EU in international fora and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. The EEAS also supports the HR in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat of the European Parliament.

We propose

The post of a 'co-financed' seconded national expert (SNE) as a Project Manager for digital solutions and e-learning. The successful candidate will become a member of the ESDC team, reporting to the Head of the European Security and Defence College, assuming cross-cutting responsibilities and providing support to other colleagues within the ESDC.

Functions and Duties

Under the authority of the management of the European Security and College Defence and as Project Manager for digital solutions and e-learning, the SNE is expected to perform the following tasks:

- Contribute to the activities of the ESDC e-learning cell;
- Support the development of compelling course content to be hosted on the ESDC's ILIAS Learning Management System, including videos, SCORM packages, graphics, and other mobile and web-based learning assets;
- Support the management, administration and update of the ESDC website and Facebook, LinkedIn and YouTube profiles;
- Support the management, administration and update of the ESDC course registration platform (ENLIST);
- Support the management and administration of the Goalkeeper/Schoolmaster platform;
- Provide ESDC input to the relevant reports (i.e. Annual Report, etc.);
- Contribute to draft and manage the training programme and conceptual documents;
- Support the creation, maintenance and expansion of ESDC networks both within and outside the EU;
- Evaluate the relevant training activities and ensure that lessons learnt are reflected in subsequent course iterations;
- Provide input and content to the relevant internal reports (e.g. the ESDC's Annual Report);
- Participate in meetings, courses, events, seminars and conferences;
- Contribute to establish the ESDC as an inclusive and diverse workplace, including in the context of sexual orientation, gender identities, disabilities and ethnicity;
- Contribute to and organise meetings of the different bodies of the ESDC;
- Perform additional tasks as directed by their managers.

We are looking for

A self-motivated, flexible and proactive colleague with good communication and organisational skills and a developed sense of service, who can rapidly adapt to a new working environment and is a good team player.

Legal basis

This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria

Candidates must:

- a) be drawn from public administrations in Member States or from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation, from other sources;

- b) have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the Union¹ or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training at an equivalent level²;
- c) have a thorough knowledge of one Union language and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of his or her duties;
- d) have security clearance at least at the level of EU SECRET/SECRET UE;
- e) remain in the service of the employer throughout the period of secondment and be paid by that employer;
- f) remain subject to the social security legislation applicable to the public administration, international administration or entity which employs the SNE and which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad;
- g) ensure that there is no conflict of interest and that he or she will, at all times, safeguard the independence and coherence of EU foreign policy as well as the integrity and confidentiality of EU documentation, information and procedures.

Selection criteria

A. Qualifications and experience required

- university diploma;
- five years of relevant professional experience, of which three years are in the field of training;
- proven experience in instructional design and e-learning content development;
- proven experience in audio-visual content development and editing;
- previous attendance of at least one ESDC course would be an advantage;
- previous work in EU institutions/agencies/missions would be an advantage;
- experience in agile, inclusive and gender-responsive methods of teamwork in diverse, multinational teams, using the latest ICT tools.

B. Skills required

- working in an international team and under time pressure;
- networking and communication skills;
- thorough knowledge of authoring tools e.g. iSpring, etc., with particular reference to

¹ Regulation (EEC, Euratom, ECSC) No 259/68 of the Council of 29 February 1968 (OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p.1) and successive amendments.

² Staff Regulations of Officials (SR) and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS). For reference, see: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?qid=1570023902133&uri=CELEX:01962R0031-20190101>.

Rise: Articulate 360;

- sound knowledge of audio-visual editing tools, e.g. Camtasia, Audacity etc.;
- sound knowledge of the management and administration of learning management platforms, i.e. ILIAS LMS and Moodle;
- proven experience with WordPress CMS-based web content hosting, including management, administration and authoring of new content;
- sound knowledge of MS Office tools;
- sound drafting and editing skills;
- proven experience in the use of project management tools (e.g. Trello);
- able to work independently and autonomously under the overall guidance of the Head of the ESDC.

National security clearance at EU SECRET/SECRET UE level. Such clearance must be obtained from the competent authorities before secondment to the European External Action Service. It must be valid for the entire period of secondment. In its absence, the EEAS reserves the right to refuse the secondment as a national expert.

C. Languages

- a thorough knowledge of one EU working language and a satisfactory knowledge of another is required. In practical terms, in order to perform the required duties, this means an excellent command of written and spoken English, and, in particular, good report-writing skills. A good knowledge of written and spoken French is desirable.

D. Personal Qualities

- must maintain the highest standards of personal integrity, impartiality and self-discipline. The expert must exercise the greatest discretion in relation to all facts and information acquired in the performance of his or her duties;
- must be able to adapt quickly to new situations and deal with new challenges, including missions in conflict areas.

Application Procedure

Applicants should draft their CVs and cover letters in English or French in a PDF or Word file, using the Europass CV template which can be found at the following internet address: <http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>

The Permanent Representations of the Member States should send applications to the EU exclusively by email to Division RM.BHR.3 'Selection and Recruitment' at the following address:

SNE-CSDP@eeas.europa.eu, and not directly to the ESDC. Each application will be examined on the basis of the requirements of the job profile set out in the vacancy notice. Division RM.BHR.3 'Selection and Recruitment' will verify the fulfilment of the eligibility criteria in the competences section. The most suitable applicants will be called for interview by the ESDC as soon as possible.

Equal opportunities

- The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its staff and applicants. The EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.
- Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact SNE-CSDP@eeas.europa.eu in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to the selection procedure in equality of opportunities with other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1d.4 of the Staff Regulations.

Conditions of secondment

SNEs shall remain in the service of their employer throughout the period of secondment and shall continue to be paid by that employer. The EEAS will provide for the allowances in order to contribute to cover the SNE's living expenses in the place of secondment on a flat-rate basis. These allowances shall not be construed as remuneration paid by the EEAS.

Duration of the secondment: the initial period shall be up to two years, renewable up to 4 years (to be adapted if the initial period is one year).

Co-financed SNEs shall be entitled to:

- a daily allowance (€ 40.40 per calendar day for a distance of up to 150 km or € 161.63 per calendar day for a distance greater than 150 km)³ throughout the period of secondment;
- a monthly allowance calculated on the basis of the distance between the place of origin (the employer's head office) and the place of secondment (between € 0 and € 912.03 per month)⁴;
- the reimbursement of travel to take up duties/to return home at the end of the secondment on a flat-rate basis (if not paid by the employer).

³ Daily allowance Decision of the Director General for Budget and Administration of the European External Action Service adjusting the allowances provided for in Decision HR DEC(2014) 01 of 4 February 2014 - ADMIN(2023) 69 of 21/12/2023.

⁴ Monthly allowance Decision of the Director General for Budget and Administration of the European External Action Service adjusting the allowances provided for in Decision HR DEC(2014) 01 of 4 February 2014 - ADMIN(2023) 69 of 21/12/2023.

The EEAS will cover:

- the costs of any professional travel (missions) incurred by the SNE while posted to the EEAS HQ;
- accident insurance 24/7 for the SNE (not for family members).

Other expenses such as removal costs, allowances, salary, insurance, schooling (while the SNE maintains the right to enrol the children in an European School Type I)⁵ and costs related to the enrolment to the Interinstitutional nurseries or the After-school centre managed by the early childhood centre of the European Commission shall not be covered by the EEAS. However, in case the SNE makes use of these two facilities for their dependent children, the EEAS shall recover any invoiced cost (including the institutional and the parental contribution, estimated at approximately EUR 18,000 per year and per child) from the Seconded National Expert concerned on a yearly basis.
