Job No 228983

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We propose:

The position of Seconded National Expert (SNE) covering Security/Counterterrorism issues in Iraq at the EU Delegation to Baghdad (Iraq), as a "co-financed" secondment, i.e. salary, insurances, accommodation and other costs are to be paid by the EU MS as appropriate and specific allowances to be paid by the EEAS.

Overall purpose: to monitor counter-terrorism related security developments, help establish and maintain EU relations with local counterparts on counterterrorism and preventing/countering violent extremism (P/CVE) and transnational or organised crime relating to terrorism at the Iraqi level; to contribute to analysis and reporting in the fields of security, counterterrorism, rule of Law, security sector reform, under the direct supervision of the Head of Delegation. Due attention to human rights and the rule of law which are central the EU's approach to countering terrorism, should be given. He/she will be based in Baghdad and will be required to travel in the country and in the region where necessary.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a highly motivated colleague (SNE) to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE) at the EU Delegation to Iraq

The expert will assist / contribute:

- To follow the terrorism landscape and related security developments in Iraq and the region and support EEAS Headquarters, as well as the EU Delegation (and other Delegations as appropriate in the region) with advice on matters related to security, with a focus on counterterrorism, radicalisation, and preventing/countering violent extremism and transnational and organised crime as these relate to countering terrorism;
- To provide regular and timely reporting to the Security and Defence Policy Directorate (CT Division) at EEAS Headquarter, via the EU Delegation on the above mentioned topics including monthly reports, early warnings, specific requests, info flashes, "think pieces", as well as responses to specific requests.;
- To ensure close coordination with Member States' security advisers, police liaison officers and counterterrorism officers, including by participating in and/or convening relevant coordination meetings on matters pertaining to Iraq;

- To develop and maintain a network made of the relevant Law enforcement institutions and Interior Ministries in Iraq, ONSA, NSS and intelligence agencies, UN & NATO agencies, local and international civil society, etc.;
- To closely cooperate with the Commission services (including FPI, INTPA, HOME, MENA, etc.) in the identification, formulation and implementation of programmes and activities relating to counterterrorism, P/CVE and transnational crime activities in Iraq and Northeast Syria, in line with the Security and Defence Policy Directorate (CT Division) strategic advice.

Legal Basis:

This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy Decision HR DEC (2014)01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.
