Vacancy Notice 2025/133– HQ (AD) Head of Sector in the EEAS Strategy, Coordination and Policy Division (MD-PSD.SECDEFPOL.1)

Type of post “Administrator”

Job no. 492464

Eligibility grade for EU officials: AD 5 – AD 12. Grade of recruitment for candidates from the Member States and current temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS: AD 7

WE ARE

The European External Action Service (hereafter, the “EEAS”) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (hereafter, the “CFSP”), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU’s external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Strategy, Coordination and Policy Division (MD-PSD.SECDEFPOL.1) is responsible for leading and coordinating the EEAS' overall contribution and strategy in the area of security and defence. This includes work on strategic initiatives, such as the implementation of the Strategic Compass, the joint White Paper on European Defence Readiness 2030 and ReARM Europe Plan/Readiness 2030, the Preparedness Union Strategy. It also includes the preparation and follow-up of Ministerial and other high-level meetings, as well as the development and implementation of specific policies, instruments and capabilities in the field of defence cooperation and civilian CSDP. The division is also in charge of overseeing the overall EEAS contribution to the European Defence Industrial Strategy, including cooperation with the Ukrainian Defence Industrial Base.

WE PROPOSE

The post of a Head of Sector – Strategy, Coordination and Communication. The successful candidate will join the Strategy, Coordination and Policy Division (SECDEFPOL.1) in the Managing Directorate Peace, Security and Defence (MD PSD).

PLACE and DATE OF EMPLOYMENT

EEAS Headquarters, Brussels, Belgium

Post available: 01/09/2025

LEGAL BASIS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THIS POSITION

The successful candidate for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) of the of the Staff Regulations (hereafter,

- the “SR”) if he/she is an EU official;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State or reassigned if she/he is a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies;
- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(b) of the SR if he/she is an EU official from another institution;
- if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned, recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(c) of the SR (competition laureates),
- in the alternative, if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned, in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(b) of the CEOS (candidates coming from a national administration other than the diplomatic service).

WE LOOK FOR

Under the authority of the Head of Division, the successful candidate will:

- coordinate the activities of the sector in order to support the EEAS in the definition and implementation of various work strands related to EU Defence policy, especially in the context of the objectives and actions set out in the Strategic Compass, the joint White Paper on European Defence Readiness 2030 and ReARM Europe Plan/Readiness 2030 as well as the Preparedness Union Strategy;
- assist the Head of Division in the definition of the division's strategic objectives in the area of Common Security and Defence Policy and Crisis Management, work programme and specific objectives in line with the Division's mission statement;
- lead and manage the resources and activities of the sector, ensuring that staff delivers the work required to implement the work program in this area, while enabling the jobholders to develop their potential in order to support in the most effective manner the mission and priorities of the Sector in the area of Common Security and Defence Policy and Defence Cooperation;
- participate and/or represent the EEAS in meetings with stakeholders, including European Union institutions, Member States, third countries, international organisations and civil society at large in the area of Common Security and Defence Policy;
- lead and coordinate with various institutional stakeholders (including the EU Military Staff, the European Defence Agency, and relevant Commission services) the Division's contribution to and role in policy development and implementation of the Strategic Compass, the joint White Paper on European Defence Readiness 2030 and ReARM Europe Plan/Readiness 2030 as well as the Preparedness Union Strategy;
- lead and manage work to prepare regular ministerial meetings of Defence ministers (FAC/D) and high level meetings (Defence Policy Directors, Security Policy Directors);
- lead and manage coordination of briefings for hierarchy (including HRVP, SG, DSG, MD PSD) on security and defence related topics;
- lead and manage work on communication on relevant EU security and defence policy, including communication events and material. Establish a network of contacts among officials, academics and think-tanks, as well as civil society, including representatives of the business community.

The position is classified as an “Administrator” type of post¹ in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12.

¹ According to Annex I to the Staff Regulations and the relevant EEAS internal rules.

If selected for the post, candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, as well as candidates coming from a national administration other than the diplomatic service, will be recruited at grade AD 7.

Current EEAS temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the "CEOS") applies and who have a higher grade than the one determined above for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States shall retain their current grade in case of selection for the post. If their grade is below the one set for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, they will be reclassified at grade AD 7.

Candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS currently employed in the EEAS should be in a position to serve during the full duration of the assignment of the post, which is in principle four years, within the limits provided for by Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS².

Eligibility Criteria³:

- General

In addition to the conditions set out in Article 28 of the SR for EU officials or in Article 12 of the CEOS for temporary agents, candidates must:

1. be an EU official, a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies or a member of staff from the national diplomatic service of a Member State; members of other national administrations of the Member States may also express interest as per the specific eligibility criteria;
2. have the capacity to work in the languages of the CFSP and external relations (English and French);
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations.

EPSO and EEAS internal competition laureates who are on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 of the SR may have their applications considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR, or by Article 29(1)(b) of the SR.

- Specific eligibility criteria for EU officials and temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies

1. EU officials or temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must occupy a post in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12, or have occupied such a post before their change in administrative status in accordance with Article 35 of the SR, or occupy an AST post and be on the list drawn up according to Article 45(a)(c) of the SR (certification list).
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, applications from staff members currently serving in a Delegation are in principle not eligible unless they are included in the annual rotation or mobility exercises and if the day for submitting the applications for the vacancy notice is less than six months from the end of their ongoing posting. Other applications may only be considered in the interest of the service or in duly justified situations.

² Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

³ All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post.

3. Due to the need to ensure business continuity, applications from EEAS staff members who have less than two years in their current post in Headquarters at the date of their submission are not eligible. They may only be considered in the interest of the service or in duly justified situations.
4. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are EU officials, independently of their administrative status under Article 35 of the SR, cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents. In the case of applications from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment within the meaning of Article 35(a) of the SR.
5. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.
6. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must provide a new certificate issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs⁴ (hereafter, the "MFA") containing the same elements as requested for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States (see specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States).

- Specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States to be recruited in accordance with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS

In line with Article 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from national diplomatic services of the Member States must:

1. Possess a level of education:
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more; OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years⁵.
2. Have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience.

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

3. The candidates shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin, which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national diplomatic service at the time of the application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment

⁴ Notwithstanding national terminology that may vary from one Member State to another.

⁵ The minimum of one year of professional experience required under (b) counts as an integral part of the above qualification and cannot be included in the professional experience required under point 2.

relationship with the MFA; or that they have the same status/employment relationship at another national administration of their Member State and are on formal secondment to their MFA or an entity placed under the authority of the MFA such as an embassy, a permanent representation or a mission of the Member State accredited to an international organisation;

- endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
- a guarantee of immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service with the EEAS, as required under Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex I of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the MFA of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Candidates must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment within the duration of their service with the EEAS or before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.

Candidates from the national diplomatic services of Member States, who have served continuously 8 or up to the maximum of 10 years as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS pursuant to Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS, are not eligible before a lapse of at least 2 years from the termination of their last contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS⁶.

- Possibility for staff members of national administration other than national diplomatic services to express their interests for the post

In case no suitable candidate is found among the candidates being EU officials, coming from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, being temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, or competition laureates, the selection procedure for this post carried out on the basis of Article 29(1) and/or Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR would be deemed unsuccessful. In such situation, profiles of staff members coming from public national administrations of the Member States other than national diplomatic services may be exceptionally considered by the Authority Authorised to Conclude Contracts of Employment (hereafter, the "AACC").

Given the specific nature of this particular post and the specialised profile sought, candidates with such a profile are hereby invited to express their interest in this position.

These candidates should meet points (2) and (3) of the general eligibility criteria, as set out above. In addition:

- (a) by analogy, they should meet the same specific eligibility criteria than the ones applicable for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States with regard to their level of education and professional experience; and
- (b) they shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national administration of origin at the time of their application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with this administration;
 - endorsement by the national diplomatic service of their application for the post;

⁶ Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

- a guarantee of immediate reinstatement in their national administration of origin after the end of their period of service with the EEAS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex II of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the national diplomatic service of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

If selected for the post, the candidate would be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS.

Selection Criteria:

Candidates should have:

- an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication and management in a complex, multicultural environment;
- an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, civil society, international organisations and EU Member States;
- strong drafting, communication, reporting and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- excellent knowledge of the EU's internal and external policies and instruments, and of the functioning of the Union and its inter-institutional framework;
- 5 years' experience and knowledge of CFSP and CSDP;
- an excellent ability to ensure excellent coordination, communication in a complex, multicultural environment, working within a diverse team;
- dynamism, flexibility and ability to adapt quickly to new situations;

Furthermore:

- experience in the key areas of defence policy instruments and initiatives;
- experience in managing personnel or teams;
- experience in an EU CSDP mission/operation or in a relevant international organisation; would be considered assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

The successful candidate will be offered a temporary contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned with the usual date of mobility at Headquarters (currently 31 August of each year).

In case no suitable candidate is found among the EU officials or members of national diplomatic services who applied for this post and if, subsequently, after taking into consideration the expressions of interests of members of other national administrations, the AACC found a suitable profile among them, the latter would be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration and can be renewed only once for a 2 years period, in accordance with Article 8, second indent, of the CEOS.

All newly engaged temporary staff will be required to complete a probationary period of 9 months, in accordance with Article 14 of the CEOS.

CONDITIONS OF RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND SECURITY RISKS

As a matter of policy, applications by individuals who have dual nationality of which one of a non-EU country, will be considered on a case-by-case basis taking account in particular of the functions attributed to the vacant post. The EEAS also examines if there could be a conflict of interest or security risks.

In this context, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex III).

MEDICAL CLEARANCE

If the successful candidate is not an EU official or a temporary agent currently employed in the EEAS, he/she will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that he/she is physically fit to perform the duties.

PERSONNEL SECURITY CLEARANCE

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁷.

The selected candidate should hold, or be in the position to obtain, a valid Personnel Security Clearance (hereafter, the "PSC")⁸ issued by the competent authority of the Member State concerned.

Candidates who do not already have a valid PSC will be required to go through the security clearance vetting procedure of their Member State to obtain this clearance in accordance with national laws and regulations and with the procedure laid down in the Decision ADMIN\(2019\)7 on Security Clearance Requirements and Procedures for the EEAS of 08 March 2019 and in Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS. Until the PSC is issued by the competent authority of the Member State concerned, the selected candidate will not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

In case of failure to obtain or renew the required PSC, the AACC may take the appropriate measures in accordance with Article 3(3) of the Decision ADMIN\(2019\) 7 on Security Clearance Requirements and Procedures for the EEAS of 08 March 2019.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

⁷ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

⁸ The 'Personnel Security Clearance' is defined under point 2 of Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS as "a statement by a competent authority of a Member State which is made following completion of a security investigation conducted by the competent authorities of a Member State and which certifies that an individual may, provided his 'need-to-know' has been determined, be granted access to EUCI up to a specified level (CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above) until a specified date; the individual thus described is said to be 'security cleared'."

Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact the functional mailbox (EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu) in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure with equal opportunities as other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1(d)(4) of the SR.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE⁹

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria applicable to their situation in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the online system:

<https://eapplication.eeas.europa.eu>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the aforementioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the online system.

In case of connection problems, you can also refer to the complete EU Login user guide: https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/cas/manuals/EU_Login_Tutorial.pdf

During the online application procedure, candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French) and the declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex III). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and the certificate issued (within the past 6 months) by the MFA of their Member State of origin.

Candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the online system.

Only one application shall be submitted by candidate.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 5 September 2025 at 12:00 (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the online system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter. The panel will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

⁹ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.html

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the Appointing Authority/AACC that will make the final selection.

It is recalled that, if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedure can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.

ANNEX III

DECLARATION OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST TO BE FILLED BY CANDIDATES

Article 11(3) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union (SR):

“Before recruiting an official, the Appointing Authority shall examine whether the candidate has any personal interest such as to impair his independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the candidate, using a specific form, shall inform the appointing authority of any actual or potential conflict of interest. In such cases, the Appointing Authority shall take this into account in a duly reasoned opinion. If necessary, the Appointing Authority shall take measures referred to in Article 11a(2)”.

Article 11a(2) of the SR:

“Any official to whom it falls, in the performance of his duties, to deal with a matter referred to above shall immediately inform the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority shall take any appropriate measure, and may in particular relieve the official from responsibility in this matter”.

These provisions apply to temporary agents in accordance with Article 11 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).

It is the candidates’ duty to inform through this form the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest regarding their future tasks. They shall be broad in their identification of actual or potential conflict of interests. It is reminded that it will be up to the administration, and not to the candidates themselves, to assess on this basis whether they are sources of conflict of interests and, if applicable, whether they constitute an issue for the recruitment and, if not, whether they should call for adequate mitigating measures to protect both the interests of the institution and of the selected candidate.
