

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Peace Partnerships and Crisis Management Directorate (MD-PSD.PCM)

Policy Officer – Evaluation expert

Integrated Approach for Peace and Security Division, PCM.1

CO-FINANCED

AD level post

Job No 505547

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

Within PCM ('Peace, Partnerships & Crisis Management Directorate'), the 'Integrated Approach for Peace & Security' Division (PCM.1) is responsible for the effective coordination of the EU response throughout the conflict cycle by working with relevant geographic and thematic services of the EEAS and the Commission, in developing a shared EU strategy and integrated approach in dealing with conflicts and crises. The division also has the lead in implementing the EU policy on Training for CSDP and is the service of contact with the European Security and Defence College.

PCM.1 is structured along two sectors:

- Sector 1 on Human Security and Governance provides methodological tools and practical support to EU actors in key areas such as SSR (Security Sector Reform), DDR (Disarmament, demobilisation and reintegration of ex-combatants), stabilisation, human security / human rights due diligence, climate and security, as well as Youth, Peace and Security, and develops the necessary policy concepts.
- Sector 2 on Evaluation and Knowledge Management stimulates a culture of continuous learning and development in the area of Peace, Security and Defence, by conducting and supporting impact evaluations, lessons processes, after action reviews and providing methodological guidance. It works on impact evaluation of Civilian CSDP missions and will start the evaluations of the European Peace Facility (EPF) in 2026.

We propose:

The position of Evaluation expert

The successful candidate will join the above-mentioned sector 2 in the PCM.1 Division. The main focus will be on the impact evaluation of the European Peace Facility, whereby the selected candidate will bring an important contribution to informed decision-making, planning and implementation of EU activities in this field.

Functions and Duties:

- Development of evaluation methods and tools and in the conduct of independent evaluations of the EPF, in close dialogue with other relevant EEAS and Commission directorates and stakeholders. This includes contributions to developing and revising, whenever necessary, the corresponding EEAS' Evaluation Concept and Methodology;
- Contribute to developing evaluation methods and tools and conducting independent evaluations of EPF, which includes the drafting Terms of reference for specific evaluations, desk-studies and field visits, the drafting of evaluation reports, contributions to the creation of feedback loops as part of the overall work on knowledge management, and any other tasks related to the evaluation of EPF;
- Establish and maintain regular contacts and exchanges with other EU services, including, military CSDP missions and operations, EU Delegations in third countries, as well as with Member States, authorities in partner countries, international organisations, international and national NGOs, research institutions and the academic community at large as relevant;
- Draft reports, briefings, policy, methodological, programming and other documents as appropriate;
- Support the Head of Division in any other tasks as required.

We are looking for:

We are seeking an energetic, proactive and motivated evaluation expert to join our friendly and dynamic team. The successful candidate will contribute to implementing and advancing the EU's Integrated Approach to external crises and conflicts, helping to further strengthen how the EU brings together its expertise and instruments, and works with Member States to deliver greater impact in fragile and conflict-affected contexts.

The expert is expected to have proven technical expertise and experience in evaluating security and defence sector support, and/or a solid understanding of the EU's crisis management toolbox, including its actors, their respective interests, positions and capacities. The role requires conducting field studies, including in high- and critical-risk areas. A good understanding of the EU institutional system and familiarity with the latest EU Security and Defence policy concepts would be highly desirable. Experience and knowledge of the European Peace Facility would be considered a strong asset.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.
