(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD07)

Job n. 153031

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS), which supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent EU foreign policy. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

Division II.A.1. covers the countries of East Africa, the Horn of Africa and the Indian Ocean. It comprises currently 13 AD officials who deal with the countries, regional organisations and specific topics of importance to the region, including migration and the fight against piracy.

We propose:

The position of international relations officer for South Sudan.

Under the supervision of the Head of Division, the postholder will be responsible for following, implementing and contributing to the EU policies on South Sudan. Since South Sudan's independence in 2011, the EU has been committed to supporting this new country. The jobholder will be asked to follow the regional mediation efforts, contribute to the development of a strategy on dialogue and reconciliation at the grass roots level, oversee the programming and implementation of development assistance and ensure its close coordination with humanitarian assistance.

The postholder will be asked to represent the EEAS in relevant meetings including with Non-Governmental Organisations, the European Parliament, and Member States.

The postholder will need to coordinate closely with the EU Special Representative for the Horn of Africa and his team, as well as with the EU Delegation in Juba and Commission services, in particular DGs DEVCO and ECHO.

In addition to working on South Sudan, the postholder will be expected to act as a back-up for the desk officer for Sudan and support the division's work by taking over specific files on an ad hoc or permanent base.
