- ❖ Strategic operational analysis and advice
 - Prepare and participate in the discussions of the relevant Council working groups and committees, especially the Committee for Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management (CIVCOM), RELEX, the EUMC and the Political and Security Committee (PSC).
 - Represent CPCC in relevant working group meetings.
 - Draft notes, advices or any other documents relating to the discussions taking place in those areas.
 - Follow closely the development of the EU policy concerning the mission area and the region and contribute technical expertise and advice to the policy making process and decisions as relevant.
 - Help ensure consistency of civilian CSDP missions with regard to all aspects of policing, in particular Border policing and Integrated Border Management.
- ❖ Liaison with Member States, EU institutions and other stakeholders
 - Act as focal point regarding the allocated civilian CSDP mission(s).
 - Co-operate closely with other parts of the European External Action Service (EEAS), in particular the Crisis Management Planning Directorate (CMPD), the EU Military Staff (EUMS), the respective Geographical Directorate(s), and other EU actors.
 - Liaise with and brief representatives of Member States and contributing third States as appropriate.
 - Maintain contact with relevant international stakeholders (such as the UN, third countries, the OSCE).
 - Facilitate coordination and cooperation of police aspects of civilian CSDP missions with other international organisations, in particular the UN, the OSCE and the African Union at strategic level and by participation in liaison functions, as required.

❖ Planning for Civilian CSDP Missions

- Contribute to the strategic and operational planning of new civilian CSDP missions, and in doing so, ensure consistency with relevant agreed CSDP documents and lessons learned from past and ongoing CSDP engagements.
- Take part in Fact Finding Missions (FFM) and Technical Assessment Missions (TAM) and contribute to reports in this regard as appropriate.
- Contribute to drafting the operational planning documents such as the Concept of Operations (CONOPS) and Operational Plan (OPLAN), particularly in respect to the operational focus and implementation sections, as well as to Council Decisions (legal decision of the Council of the EU).
- Contribute to drafting the Budgetary Impact Statement (BIS) with a view to defining the mission's budget.

❖ Conduct of civilian CSDP missions

- Watch closely the security situation in the host country and developments in the region, which might spill over to theatre, including participating in EEAS security briefings and analysis of open sources and intelligence information/reports.
- Ensure general supervision of, and guidance to the respectively allocated civilian CSDP mission(s), including the respective Head(s) of Mission.
- Conduct field visits to the allocated civilian CSDP mission(s).
- Contribute to the preparation of calls for contributions and, if appropriate, participate in personnel selection procedures.
- Contribute to the assessment and refocusing of civilian CSDP missions, as required by providing operational expertise inter alia through reports, briefing notes and analytical summaries.
- Contribute to strategic reviews of the allocated civilian CSDP mission(s).
- Contribute to the assessment of Police and Rule of Law aspects in the allocated civilian CSDP mission(s) and provide input to the lessons identified and lessons learned process.

❖ Representations

- Represent CPCC Operations in meetings and seminars with internal and external stakeholders and provide information on specific civilian CSDP missions or other CSDP related topics.
- Contribute to public information activities of the EEAS in the civilian CSDP area.
- Acting as point of contact within CPCC, OPS Division for assigned cross functional tasks. Acting as point of contact within CPCC, OPS Division, to external institutions/entities.
- Other tasks as directed by the Head of Division.
