Seconded Personnel – For Seconded positions, only personnel nominations received through official channels from EU Member states will be considered. Contributed States will bear all personnel-related costs for seconded personnel, e.g. salaries, medical coverage, travel expenses to and from EUSR/Mission area (including home leave) and allowances other than those paid according to the Council documents 7291/09 (10 march 2009) and 9084/13 (30 April 2013).

Contracted Personnel – Contracted Personnel – The EUSR Office may recruit international staff on a contractual basis as required, through an employment contract. The employment contract with the EUSR Office establishes the conditions of employment, rights and obligations, remuneration, allowances, travel and removal expenses and the applicable high risk insurance policy. Preference will be given to seconded candidates. A seconded staff member of EUSR Office can apply for a contracted post only if his/her secondment will end within three (3) months from the deadline of the Call for applications and if his/her request for extension of the secondment has not been supported by the relevant State or EU Institution.

Documents supporting the educational qualifications and work experience should be accompanied by certified translation of the original documents in the English language, if issued in other language, in accordance with the European Commission Guidelines for Lifelong Learning, which ensure transparency in higher education and fair and informed judgements about qualifications.

Tour of Duty/Contract Period – the initial duration of the deployment should be until 31st of August 2017. The form of the continuation beyond August 2017 will be subject of a specific discussion in the Council bodies foreseen for March / April 2017.

The European External Action Service requests Member States and EU Institutions to consider seconding the above mentioned qualified candidates for the team of the EUSR in Afghanistan, according to the described requirements and profiles:

A. Essential Requirements

The following are essential requirements in respect of civilian international experts to the EUSR Office:

Citizenship - Citizen of a member state of the European Union (EU) and enjoying full rights as a citizen.

Integrity - The candidates must maintain the highest standards of personal integrity, impartiality and self-discipline. The candidates are not allowed to provide or discuss any information or document as a result of access to classified and/or sensitive information related to the EUSR Office or respective tasks and activities. The participants shall carry out their duties and act in the interests of the EUSR Mission.

Communication skills – The candidates must have excellent interpersonal and communication skills, both written and oral. In particular, they must be able to write reports in the working language of the EUSR Office, which is English.

Language skills¹ – Spoken and written proficiency in English. Certain positions may require higher language skills further specified in the individual Job Descriptions.

Flexibility and adaptability – The candidates must be able to work in arduous conditions with a limited network of support, with unpredictable working hours and a considerable workload. They must have the ability to work professionally as a member of a team, in task forces and working groups with mixed composition (e.g. civilian and police staff) and be able to cope with extended separation from family and usual environment.

Availability – The candidates must be able to undertake any other tasks related with the competencies, responsibilities and functions of the respective position within the EUSR Office, as required by the EUSR.

Physical and mental health - The candidates must be physically fit and in good health without any physical or mental problem or substance dependency which may impair operational performance in the EUSR Office. To ensure duty of care in a non-benign environment, selected candidates should, in principle, be under the normal age of retirement in contributing States.

Computer Skills - Skills in word processing, spreadsheets and email systems are essential. Knowledge of other IT tools will be an asset.

Education – A recognized academic qualification under the European Qualification Framework (EQF)², or equivalent, at a level specified in the individual job description.

B. Desirable Requirements

Knowledge of the EU Institutions – The candidates should have a good knowledge of the EU Institutions and international standards, particularly related to the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), including the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP).

Knowledge of EUSR Office areas – The candidates should have a good knowledge of the history, culture, social and political situation of the region; and also knowledge of the police, judiciary and governmental structures.

Knowledge and experience of SSR - The candidates must be acquainted with Security sector Reform concepts and practices, especially in the EUSR Office area.

Training and Experience – The candidates should have attended a Civilian Crisis Management Course or equivalent.

Language - some proficiency / knowledge of Dari or Pashtu will be a distinct advantage.

C. Essential Documents and Equipment for Selected Candidates

Passport – The selected candidates must have a passport from their respective national authorities. If possible, a Service Passport or Diplomatic Passport should be issued.

Visas - Contributing countries and selected seconded candidates must ensure that visas are obtained for entry into the EUSR Office area prior to departure from their home country. It is also essential to obtain any transit visas, which may be required for passage through countries en route to EUSR Office area. For contracted staff, visas are facilitated by the EUSR Office.

Required Personnel Security Clearance (PSC) – The selected candidates will have to be in the possession of the necessary level of Personnel Security Clearance (PSC) as specified in the respective job descriptions. For seconded experts, the original certificate of the national security clearance or a proof of the initiation of the process must accompany them upon deployment. For contracted experts, the process will be initiated by the EUSR Office Mission Security Officer upon deployment. For both Seconded and Contracted staff, the access to EUCI will be limited to RESTRICTED until the issuance of their national security clearance.

Certificate/Booklet of vaccination – The selected candidates must be in the possession of a valid certificate/booklet of vaccination showing all vaccinations and immunisations received. They also must be vaccinated according to the required immunisation for EUSR Office area.

Medical certificate – The selected candidates should undergo a medical examination and be certified medically fit for Mission duty by a competent Authority from the Contributing State. A copy of this certification must accompany deployed seconded/contracted personnel.

D. Additional information on the Selection Process

Gender balance – The EU strives for improved gender balance in CSFP/CSDP operations and EUSRs Offices in compliance with UNSCR 1325. The EEAS encourages the contributing States and European Institutions to take this into account when offering contributions.

Application form - Applications will be considered only when using the standard Application Form to be returned in Word format, and indicating which position(s) the candidate is applying for.

Selection process – The candidates considered to be most suitable will be shortlisted and, if needed, interviewed in Brussels, at the headquarter of the EUSR Office or by phone/skype before the final selection is made. If seconded candidates are required to travel to Brussels/EUSR Office headquarter for interviews, the contributing State will bear any related costs.

The selection of the candidates who are working for other EUSR / CSDP Mission at the time of their application will be subject to an impact assessment taking into account the operational needs of the EUSR Office/CSDP Mission concerned.

Information of the outcome – Contributing States and contracted candidates shortlisted (applying for Seconded/Contracted positions) will be informed about the outcome of the selection process after its completion.

NOTE FOR THE SECONDING AUTHORITIES:

Seconding authorities remain responsible for ensuring that their staff are in possession of a valid Hostile Environment Awareness Training suitable for Afghanistan and meeting their own National Standards. Furthermore, seconding authorities are responsible for equipping their seconded staff with appropriate Personal Protection equipment, to include a Ballistic Vest & Ballistic Helmet meeting their minimum National Standards.

Those seconded Police staff being deployed in an armed capacity, for personal protection purposes only, must meet the respective minimum National Standards of the seconding Member State and are to be equipped with weapons and ammunition officially supplied and in accordance with their own rules. ALL firearms related training and recertification's remain the sole responsibility of the Seconding authority.
