

Vacancy notice 2017-71 HQ (AD) Head of Division MENA.5
EEAS Vacancy Notice – Head of Division
Strategy and instruments of the European neighbourhood policy

(EU Staff Members – AD 9-14 – Candidates from the Member States – AD 12)

Job no. 152605

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS), which supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent foreign policy of the European Union. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity of Vice President of the Commission for her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

We propose:

The position of Head of Division "MENA.5" - Strategy and instruments of the European neighbourhood policy.

The Division is responsible for the formulation and implementation of the European Neighbourhood Policy (ENP). It works with the two Managing Departments covering the ENP: MD for Europe and Central Asia (EURCA) and MD for Middle East and North Africa (MENA).

Under the authority of the regionally responsible Managing Director (MD) and Deputy MD/Director, the Head of Division holds the overall management responsibility for the activities of the Division.

The Division develops the strategic orientation of the ENP, ensures coordination, provides guidance and support to EURCA and MENA Divisions on relevant instruments, including financial assistance, and sectoral EU policies, including relevant CFSP/CSDP aspects. It contributes to the monitoring of progress made by the EU and its partners on the agreed reform agenda. It contributes to sector policy dialogue with ENP partners and contributes to negotiations on ENP Association Agendas and discussions on partnership priorities and various bilateral agreements with them. It promotes the participation of ENP partners in CFSP/CSDP activities, EU programmes and agencies, and disseminates information about the policy to the wider public. In so doing, it cooperates and liaises with the relevant EEAS and Commission services, EU Delegations, other EU institutions, national, regional and non-governmental organisations, partner country authorities and other stakeholders, financial institutions and with other bodies and stakeholders involved in the implementation of the policy.

Main responsibilities:

- Contribute to strategic planning and policy conception and implementation of the ENP; provide professional support and advice to the HR/VP and the EEAS management on all aspects of the ENP.
- Coordinate all aspects of ENP implementation in close cooperation with EEAS services (EURCA and MENA in particular), the Commission (in particular DG NEAR), EU Member States, the Council and the European Parliament.
- Manage, organise and coordinate the activities of the Division and its staff: translating EU policy and priorities into specific goals, tasks and internal procedures.
- Monitor and ensure the timely implementation of goals and tasks assigned to the Division.
- Motivate, coach and lead a multinational team; ensure efficient staff and personnel administration in the Division.
- Participate in negotiations on new agreements, action plans, and Partnership Priorities as appropriate
- Contribute to coordination of an effective cooperation policy, including the ENI and various other EU programmes relevant to ENP partners in close collaboration with DG NEAR.

- Liaise with the diplomatic missions of these countries and territories and their representatives in Brussels
- Represent the EEAS in contacts with Member States, other third countries as well as EU institutions and international organisations.
- Communicate EU policy towards the neighbourhood through ensuring proactive communications planning, and engaging in public speaking at seminars and conferences.

We look for:

The successful candidate will be required to undergo security vetting if (s)he does not already hold security clearance to an appropriate level, in accordance with the relevant security provisions.

The successful candidate will be required to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration of any interests which might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence, as set out in the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The European External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE⁶

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a recent statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs (issued within the past 6 months) confirming their membership of a diplomatic service.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 2 June 2017 until 19 June 2017 at 12h00 (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedure, please use the following email address:

PUBLICATIONS@eeas.europa.eu

⁶ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 45/2001, as implemented by decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of 8 December 2011. The privacy statement is available on EEASzone (<http://webgate.eeas.testa.eu/eeas/eeaszone/?q=node/26247>) and on the EEAS website (http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.htm).

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. He/she may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.

Shortlisted candidates might be invited to an Assessment Centre.
