

HEAD OF DELEGATION TO SOUTH SUDAN
- EU staff members – AD 09-14 LEVEL POST
- Candidates from the Member States – AD 12 LEVEL POST

WE ARE

The European Union is currently present in more than 130 countries and in addition has 8 delegations to international organisations. In all, more than 1200 officials and 4100 other staff are currently serving in these delegations. EU delegations are an integral part of the European External Action Service and are placed under the authority of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy.

The work of a Delegation varies from country to country but, in general, covers political and security matters, trade, press and information, aid management and the external aspects of internal EU policies.

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is looking for an individual to fill the post of Head of the Delegation of the European Union to South Sudan.

The Head of Delegation is responsible for management of all staff (EEAS and Commission: around 30 staff, 6 of whom are officials) and financial resources (2017 administrative budget of approximately €2.9m, and a budget of approximately €350m of development assistance, including from the European Instrument for Democracy and Human Rights (EIDHR) and Food Security Budget lines and the Instrument for Stability). The Delegation is currently functioning under an evacuation level 3 regime, with five essential expatriate staff present in Juba¹ and the other expatriate colleagues in Brussels.

The key areas of activity of the Delegation are political (supporting the peace process and implementation of the 2015 Agreement on Resolution of the Conflict (ARC), supporting institutions established by the ARC, liaising with the UN Peace Keeping Mission in South Sudan, working with civil society partners and the South Sudan Council of Churches), humanitarian (providing humanitarian support to massive numbers of Internally Displaced Persons, providing food assistance to significant numbers suffering from famine or malnutrition), development (support to rural development and food security, health, education and rule of law and governance), and governance issues (promoting accountability for atrocious violations of human rights, negotiating political space for civil society and opposition groups, economic reform, anti-corruption measures).

WE PROPOSE

The Head of Delegation of the European Union to South Sudan will assist the High Representative and the Commission in fulfilling their mandates in the field of external relations, and, in particular, will have the following tasks:

- To represent the EU in South Sudan, to ensure EU coordination (lead coordination within the EU at local level and represent the EU), and to ensure a high degree of consistency between the different areas of the EU's external actions and between these and its other policies;

¹ Head of Delegation, Head of Political and Press and Information Section, Head of Administration, Regional Security Officer and a DEVCO Project Manager.

- To represent the EU in its capacity as a witness to the 2015 Agreement on Resolution of the Conflict;
- To pursue the EU's policies and their local coherence in all areas, to promote and protect the EU's interests and values, and to promote the visibility of the EU by carrying out press, information and communication activities, including through social media;
- To ensure bilateral relations across the whole policy spectrum and to carry out and promote regular political dialogue;
- To maintain contacts, exchange information and coordinate with Member States represented in South Sudan in the implementation of EU policies and to report regularly to the Headquarters of the EEAS and the Commission as appropriate on all matters covered by his/her mandate and maintain relations with other EU institutions as well as with regional and international organisations (e.g. United Nation Mission in South Sudan, African Union) in South Sudan and with institutions established under the ARC (e.g. Joint Monitoring and Evaluation Commission, Ceasefire and Transitional Security Arrangements Monitoring Mechanism);
- To provide advice and support to the EEAS Headquarters, to the Commission and to the office of the President of the European Council as appropriate on policy issues and developments arising within the framework of the EU-South Sudan bilateral relations;
- To ensure sound management of the Delegation, including financial management and correct application of the existing rules concerning the security of individuals (including the families of expatriated staff), goods and property as well as information; manage crises and ensure continuity of Delegation operations, including in the framework of business continuity;
- To ensure effective implementation as authorising officer by sub-delegation of the external assistance programmes in South Sudan and their reporting activities.
