

HEAD OF DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS (GENEVA)
- EU staff members – AD 14-15 LEVEL POST
- Candidates from the Member States – AD 14 LEVEL POST

WE ARE

The European Union is currently present in more than 130 countries and in addition has 8 delegations to international organisations. In all, more than 1200 officials and 4100 other staff are currently serving in these delegations. EU Delegations are an integral part of the European External Action Service and are placed under the authority of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy.

The work of a Delegation varies from country to country but, in general, covers political and security matters, trade, press and information, aid management and the external aspects of internal EU policies.

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is looking for an individual to fill the post of Head of the Delegation of the European Union to the United Nations (Geneva).

The Head of Delegation is responsible for management of all staff (over 40) and financial resources (2017 administrative budget of around €5m).

The key areas of activity of the Delegation are political matters (including matters related to peace and security, development and human rights), external aspects of internal EU policies, including non-trade related aspects of economic policies, and press and information. The Delegation maintains relations with the various UN agencies and bodies and other organisations based in Geneva, including the Human Rights Council, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Conference on Disarmament, the UN High Commissioner for Refugees, the International Office for Migration, the International Committee of the Red Cross, the World Health Organisation, the International Telecommunications Union, the International Labour Organisation, the UN Conference on Trade and Development, the UN Economic Commission for Europe and the World Intellectual Property Organisation.

WE PROPOSE

The Head of Delegation of the European Union to the United Nations (Geneva) will assist the High Representative and the Commission in fulfilling their mandates in the field of external relations, and, in particular, will have the following tasks:

- To represent the EU at the United Nations and other international organisations in Geneva, to ensure EU coordination (lead coordination within the EU at local level and represent the EU), and to ensure a high degree of consistency between the different areas of the EU's external action and between these and its other policies;
- To pursue the EU's policies and their local coherence in all areas, to promote and protect the EU's interests and values, and to promote the visibility of the EU by carrying out press, information and communication activities, including through social media;

- To maintain contacts, exchange information and coordinate with Member States represented in the United Nations (Geneva) in the implementation of EU policies and to report regularly to the Headquarters of the EEAS and the Commission as appropriate on all matters covered by his/her mandate as well as maintaining relations with other EU institutions;
- To provide advice to the EEAS Headquarters, to the Commission and to the office of the President of the European Council as appropriate on policy issues and developments arising within the framework of EU relations with the various UN agencies and bodies and other international organisations based in Geneva;
- To ensure sound management of the Delegation, including financial management and correct application of the existing rules concerning the security of individuals (including the families of expatriated staff), goods and property as well as information; manage crises and ensure continuity of Delegation operations, including in the framework of business continuity.
