Administrator – Policy Officer for Conflict Prevention and Early Warning System –

CSDPCR.PRISM

(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD05)

Job n. 268898

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS), which supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent EU foreign policy. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

PRISM is the focal point for the EEAS – in complementarity with geographic and horizontal services – for EU responses to all aspects of the conflict cycle, in particular conflict analysis, early warning, conflict prevention, mediation, security sector reform and the rule of law, crisis response and stabilisation.

PRISM aims to be an agile and specialised service provider, recognised across EU institutions, Member States and external partners as catalysing a more effective delivery of an integrated EU response in fragile and conflict-affected areas.

PRISM supports EU decision-making and action by working closely with EEAS senior management, geographical and relevant horizontal teams, EU Delegations, EUSR's, Special Envoys, CSDP structures and Commission services with the development and implementation of an integrated approach to conflict prevention/resolution and crisis response. It supports better analysis, provide context-specific technical advice, build capacity on conflict prevention, crisis response and stabilisation and it promotes conflict sensitive EU engagement across the conflict cycle in collaboration with relevant stakeholders. The Division co-chairs the Inter-service SSR Task Force and provide the secretariat for the crisis response structures. The Division facilitates the EU conflict Early Warning System and ensures its effective functioning in line with its inter-service mandate to link early warning with early action.

On all the above issues PRISM engages closely with EU Member States in order to promote an integrated 'whole-of-EU' approach.

We propose:

The position of Policy Officer in the Division Prevention of Conflicts, Rule of Law/ Security Sector Reform, Integrated Approach, Stabilisation and Mediation (PRISM), under the functional authority of the Head of Division.

PRISM is composed of 5 thematic teams: Conflict Prevention, Early Warning, Crisis Response, Mediation Support and Security Sector reform and Rule of Law. The Division is also organised into geographical teams with each team comprised of a cross section of expertise.

The Policy Officer will work in the Early Warning Team which is responsible for the management of the EU conflict Early Warning System. This team oversees the process leading to the identification of early warning priorities (quantitative and qualitative analysis) and monitors the translation of early warning into early action.

Given the specific role of PRISM, the official will work in close coordination with geographic and horizontal services, as well as in collaboration with regional, international and multilateral organisations, key bilateral partners, research centres, think tanks and civil society.
