

Vacancy notice 2018/189– HQ (AD)

EEAS Vacancy Notice Administrator

Administrator – Desk Officer: Pacific Sector – ASIAPAC.5

(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD07)

Job n. 298807

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS), which supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent EU foreign policy. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

The Division is responsible for developing the political and economic relationship of the European Union with Japan, Korea, Australia, New Zealand and 15 Pacific island States (Cook Islands, Fiji, Kiribati, Marshall Islands (RMI), Micronesia (FSM), Nauru, Niue, Palau, Papua New Guinea (PNG), Samoa, Solomon Islands, Timor-Leste, Tonga, Tuvalu, Vanuatu). As such, the division covers diverse countries including highly industrialised Strategic Partners and developing ACP countries. The division cooperates daily with the 7 EU Delegations in the region.

We propose:

The position of Desk Officer in the Pacific Sector, responsible for the EU's relations with a number of Pacific island states and the regional organisations, as well as post-Cotonou negotiation process.

We are seeking a highly motivated colleague who has excellent analytical and drafting skills, works well within teams and can:

- Monitor political developments, carry out political analysis and reporting, suggest appropriate policies, and prepare political dialogues with countries of responsibility, including on human rights, democracy, rule of law, regional security, multilateralism and the rules-based international;
- Support the negotiations on the Pacific segment of the post-Cotonou agreement, in effective coordination with other EEAS departments, and relevant Commission Directorates-General;
- Prepare accurate and timely briefings, speeches, statements, articles and notes and other documents as required for senior officials and the political level;
- Lead the multi-annual programming of development cooperation with the Pacific States by liaising with DG DEVCO and the Delegations and taking into account relevant country/regional strategies;
- Ensure coherence of EU policies and complementarity with member States' policies as well as synergies and coherence of the EU instruments including on trade, fisheries, climate change and development issues;
- Contribute to the overall work of the Division, when necessary taking on other tasks when requested to by the Head of Division.

We look for:

Eligibility Criteria<sup>1</sup>

In accordance with Article 98 of the Staff Regulations (SR) and in order to meet the needs of the service candidates must:

1. be officials of the EU Institutions, or temporary staff to whom Article 2 (e) of the Conditions of the Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)<sup>2</sup> applies or staff from national diplomatic services of the Member States;
2. have the capacity to work in languages of CFSP and external relations necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset;
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent external relations experience - for staff from national diplomatic services this experience must have been gained from working in a diplomatic service of one of the Member States.

Also, in order to satisfy the requirements set out in Article 12 of the CEOS, Member State applicants must:

4. be nationals of one of the EU Member States;
5. possess a level of education
  - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more, OR
  - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years.<sup>3</sup>
6. have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience

Furthermore, in order to be eligible, EU staff members must be in one of the grades AD5 to AD12 and have the Type of post of the person "ADMINISTRATOR" (AD5-AD7) or "PRINCIPAL ADMINISTRATOR" (AD8-AD12), or they must be AST officials who have successfully passed the certification procedure.

EEAS staff whose Type of Post of the Person is "Senior administrator in transition" (AD14) and "Principal administrator in transition" (AD13) can also show their interest for this job. If selected, she/he will be transferred in the interest of the service. This transfer in the interest of the service will not modify the Type of Post of the Person. Transfers in the interest of the service under Article 7 SR are only possible within the same Institution, therefore EU officials AD13 and AD14 from other Institutions are not eligible.

Applications from officials currently serving in a Delegation are, in principle, not eligible and may only be considered in the interest of the service or in case of career progression.

In the above paragraph, "career progression" includes AST staff members who have successfully completed the certification procedure and who are applying for their first AD post.

EPSO Competition laureates may express their interest for this job, provided that they meet the eligibility requirements set out at points 2 and 3 above. Their candidatures will be considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among EEAS staff, EU

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The successful candidate will be required to undergo security vetting if (s)he does not already hold security clearance to an appropriate level, in accordance with the relevant security provisions.

Successful candidates will be required to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration of any interests which might be considered prejudicial to their independence, as set out in the Staff Regulation and CEOS.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE<sup>5</sup>

Mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies, and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply for one or more of the posts published in the context of this "2018/189 - HQ (AD) Publications – Desk Officer: Pacific Sector - DIVISION" exercise.

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link from 6 December 2018. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs confirming their membership of a diplomatic service and the Ministry's support for the candidate's application for this post.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 6 December 2018 to 7 January 2019 at 12.00 midday (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

<sup>5</sup> Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 45/2001, as implemented by decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of 8 December 2011. The privacy statement is available on EEAS zone (<http://webgate.eeas.testa.eu/eeas/eeaszone/?q=node/26247>) and on the EEAS website (http://eeas.europa.eu/data\_protection/rights/index\_en.htm).

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedure, please use the following email address:

EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. He/she may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
