

EEAS Vacancy Notice Administrator

Administrator – Policy Officer

SECDEFPOL.2 - Partnerships and Agreements

(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD07)

Job n. 302869

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent EU foreign policy. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

The successful candidate would join the Division within the EEAS Security and Defence Policy Directorate responsible for Partnerships and Agreements (SECDEFPOL2). The Division is responsible for the EU common security and defence policy relations with partners such as the UN and NATO and Third countries. We work in close cooperation with other services within the EEAS, with EU Delegations, within the European Commission and the Council, with EU Member States, International organisations, third countries as well as NGOs and think tanks.

We propose:

The position of Policy Officer to deal with EU security and defence policy relations with Third countries and international organisations, with special focus on Middle East, Turkey and Western Balkans.

We are looking for a proactive, flexible and highly motivated colleague with excellent communication, negotiation and organizational skills. S/he should be able to foster constructive working relations within the EEAS, across the various EU institutions, with Member States and partners. Working under the direction of the Head of Division, the main tasks of the selected candidate will be:

- to contribute to the development, coordination and implementation of EU security and defence policy relations with Third countries and international and regional organisations;
- to maintain and deepen relations with representatives of Third countries and International organisations within the field of responsibility; organise, participate in and report on dedicated security and defence dialogues, consultations and negotiations with partner countries and international organisations;
- to draft and contribute to briefings, speeches, notes and reflection papers;
- to contribute to outreach activities on EU security and defence policy, organise and contribute as speaker in public diplomacy events such as seminars, conferences and trainings;
- to ensure effective coordination within the EEAS Security and Defence structures, EU Delegations, EEAS geographic and thematic services and the Commission, on relevant policy and institutional aspects linked to the development and implementation of EU Security and Defence Partnerships as well as the procedures relating to Third country contributions to CSDP missions and operations;
- to assist in negotiations of CSDP Participation Agreements in the geographical area of competence and support the negotiation of Partnership priorities in the field of security and defence;
- to be the Division's contact point for certain horizontal issues;
- to contribute to other tasks within the division as required.

We look for:

Eligibility Criteria¹

In accordance with Article 98 of the Staff Regulations (SR) and in order to meet the needs of the service candidates must:

1. be officials of the EU Institutions, or temporary staff to whom Article 2 (e) of the Conditions of the Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)² applies or staff from national diplomatic services of the Member States;
2. have the capacity to work in languages of CFSP and external relations necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset;
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent external relations experience - for staff from national diplomatic services this experience must have been gained from working in a diplomatic service of one of the Member States.

would be strong assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT

If the successful candidate is an EU staff member, s/he will be appointed according to Articles 29.1.(a)(i) or (ii) and 98.1 of the Staff Regulations and according to the rules on grade set out above.

If the successful candidate is from a national diplomatic service s/he will be offered a contract as temporary agent under Article 2(e) of the CEOS; such contracts have a maximum duration of 4 years. The appointment will be at AD 7 level⁴.

In accordance with Article 6(11) of Council Decision 427/2010, each Member State shall provide its officials who have become temporary agents in the EEAS under Article 2(e) of the CEOS with a guarantee of immediate re-instatement at the end of the period of service to the EEAS.

All newly engaged temporary staff members are required to complete successfully a probationary period of 9 months.

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

Brussels, Belgium

⁴ The basic salaries offered by the EU institutions are set out in Article 66 of the Staff Regulations. The current level, set out in Regulation n° 423/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council, can be accessed via the link <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32014R0423&from=EN>

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The successful candidate will be required to undergo security vetting if (s)he does not already hold security clearance to an appropriate level (EU SECRET), in accordance with the relevant security provisions.

Successful candidates will be required to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration of any interests which might be considered prejudicial to their independence, as set out in the Staff Regulation and CEOS.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE⁵

Mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies , and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply for one or more of the posts published in the context of this "2019/48 - HQ (AD) Publications –Policy Officer – SECDEFPOL.2 " exercise.

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link from 18 February 2019. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs confirming their membership of a diplomatic service and the Ministry's support for the candidate's application for this post.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 18/02/2019 to 11/03/2019 at 12.00 midday (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

⁵ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 45/2001, as implemented by decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of 8 December 2011. The privacy statement is available on EEAS zone (<http://webgate.eeas.testa.eu/eeas/eeaszone/?q=node/26247>) and on the EEAS website (http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.htm).

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedure, please use the following email address:

EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. He/she may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
