(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD07)

Job n. 262108

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS), which supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent EU foreign policy. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

Preventing violent conflict and preserving peace is at the heart of the EU's external action as set out by the Treaty (Article 21-2 (c)) . In line with the objective to preserve peace and prevent conflict, Integrated approach for Security and Peace.2 (ISP.2) is the lead service within the EEAS for a number of tools the EU deploys in situations of fragility and conflict. In particular ISP.2 is responsible for:

- Identifying countries at risk of instability and/or violent conflict through the EU conflict Early Warning System and horizon scanning.
- Ensuring that joint conflict analyses of countries that are at risk of or face conflict or instability and where the EU has an ongoing or planned significant engagement are systematically carried out and updated.
- Advising on conflict sensitivity of EU responses in fragile contexts.
- Promoting mediation and dialogue activities to support the EU's efforts to preserve peace at any stage of the conflict cycle.
- Managing external relations and policy development in conflict prevention and areas identified above.

We propose:

The position of the Policy Officer is under the functional authority of the Head of Division of ISP.2. He/she will work in the Conflict Prevention team, which comprises conflict analysis, advice on conflict sensitivity, early warning system and horizon scanning.

The Officer will work for the Conflict Prevention Team which is responsible for the management of the EU conflict Early Warning System, carrying out conflict analysis and providing advice on conflict sensitivity. This team provides high-level analytical work as well as practical advice to colleagues within the EEAS and the Commission on countries in conflict and crisis.

Given the specific role of ISP.2, the official will work in close coordination with geographic and horizontal services, as well as in collaboration with regional, international and multilateral organisations, key bilateral partners, research centres, think tanks and civil society.

Mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies , and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply for one or more of the posts published in the context of this "2019/43 - HQ (AD) Publication" Conflict Prevention and Early Warning.

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link from 12 March 2019. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs confirming their membership of a diplomatic service and the Ministry's support for the candidate's application for this post.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 12 March 2019 to 01 April 2019 at 12.00 midday (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. He/she may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.
