

EEAS Vacancy Notice Administrator

Administrator – Policy Officer – Security and Defence

EEAS Integrated approach to Security and Peace (ISP) Division – ISP.1

(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD07)

Job n. 302865

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS), which supports the work of the High Representative in defining and implementing an effective and coherent EU foreign policy. The EEAS supports her tasks of conducting the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with Member States, the Council and relevant services of the European Commission.

The recent restructuring process of the CSDP and Crisis Response services created a new Division for Concepts, Knowledge Management and Programmes (ISP.1). Its mandate is to ensure that all EU actions and operations in situations of fragility and crisis are complementary, coordinated and tailored to the conflict sensitive and effective. The ISP.1 will be responsible for facilitating an agreement on a shared strategy; ensuring the sound implementation of an Integrated Approach and strengthening EU's related capacities through training and knowledge management.

We propose:

The position of Policy Officer – Security and Defence.

S/He will, in close cooperation with relevant entities of the respective Directorate:

- Contribute to policies and methodologies related to security and defence;
- Advise and provide technical support to EU actors (including EU Delegations) on issues related to cooperation with partner countries in the field of security and defence, in particular within conflict prevention and stabilisation contexts;
- Contribute to the programming exercise of the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument (NDICI), in particular for the "Stability and Peace" areas of the thematic pillar
- Contribute to the negotiation process, and subject to that negotiation any eventual setup, programming and political and operational steering of a European Peace Facility (EPF);

The job includes a wide range of duties such as:

- Establish and maintain regular contacts and exchanges with other EU services, including delegations, Member States, third countries, international organisations, international and national NGOs, research institutions and the academic community at large;
- Follow-up and contribute to external relations policy proposals, including through the inter-institutional decision-making process.
- Draft reports, briefings, policy and programming documents.
- Cooperate with EU Delegations and the Commission on the identification, implementation and evaluation of projects in the security and defence area (including Capacity building for security and development-CBSD), particularly with regard to policy issues and political follow up.

We look for:

We are looking for an energetic, proactive and motivated security and defence programming officer who will be working in a friendly and dynamic environment. Practical experience with programming in this area would be especially welcome i.e. African Peace Facility.

Eligibility Criteria<sup>1</sup>

In accordance with Article 98 of the Staff Regulations (SR) and in order to meet the needs of the service candidates must:

1. be officials of the EU Institutions, or temporary staff to whom Article 2 (e) of the Conditions of the Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)<sup>2</sup> applies or staff from national diplomatic services of the Member States;
2. have the capacity to work in languages of CFSP and external relations necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset;
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent external relations experience - for staff from national diplomatic services this experience must have been gained from working in a diplomatic service of one of the Member States.

Also, in order to satisfy the requirements set out in Article 12 of the CEOS, Member State applicants must:

If the successful candidate is from a national diplomatic service s/he will be offered a contract as temporary agent under Article 2(e) of the CEOS; such contracts have a maximum duration of 4 years. The appointment will be at AD 7 level<sup>4</sup>.

In accordance with Article 6(11) of Council Decision 427/2010, each Member State shall provide its officials who have become temporary agents in the EEAS under Article 2(e) of the CEOS with a guarantee of immediate re-instatement at the end of the period of service to the EEAS.

All newly engaged temporary staff members are required to complete successfully a probationary period of 9 months.

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

Brussels, Belgium

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The successful candidate will be required to undergo security vetting if (s)he does not already hold security clearance to an appropriate level (EU SECRET), in accordance with the relevant security provisions.

Successful candidates will be required to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration of any interests which might be considered prejudicial to their independence, as set out in the Staff Regulation and CEOS.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE<sup>5</sup>

Mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies, and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply for one or more of the posts published in the context of this "2019/76-HQ (AD) Publication " exercise.

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. He/she may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
