1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation³. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff from the current number of more about 750 to meet its expanding tasks.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;

¹ For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

² Date of publication: 29 April 2020.

- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

2. THE INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY UNIT

The Information and Communication Technology Unit (ICT) operates as a centre of expertise and support for the development of existing and new ICT systems and ICT components of Frontex entities including Task Forces. It ensures that corporate ICT systems are designed, developed and maintained with efficiency and consistency according to Frontex strategic priorities. The Unit plays a crucial role in designing IT systems and services ensuring their implementation and compliance with Frontex ICT strategy going beyond the day-to-day needs of the Agency. The scope of the Unit responsibilities is intertwined with operational priorities adopted under Integrated Border Management strategy. While ICT projects are developed internally by business entities where ICT business partners are deployed, the Unit centralises the management and development of all ICT capacities of the Agency to ensure the alignment of projects to strategic policies, guidelines and principles as highlighted by the ICT strategy.

The Unit is responsible for the development, maintenance and support of the Agency's ICT infrastructure, as well as the IT services and products. The ICT Unit provides and organises the first, second and third lines of support to all Frontex ICT systems, monitors them and seeks to improve the quality, reliability and efficiency of the service delivered. Furthermore, it manages ICT-related contracts for the purpose of maximising financial and operational performance and minimising risk. Finally, it ensures a high availability of the ICT services and applications in line with the business needs.

It is responsible for maintaining a high level of security throughout all the Agency's ICT systems, for monitoring them and constantly improving security solutions as new threats appear.

Main tasks:

- a) ensuring the smooth operations of the IT services and applications with as few disruptions as possible to the user;
- b) designing, drafting, planning, organising and ensuring a strict implementation of Frontex ICT strategy;
- c) acquiring, maintaining, implementing and supporting IT solutions and technology infrastructure;
- d) procuring ICT resources;
- e) managing the capacity of IT resources;
- f) accrediting IT Systems when required;
- g) delivering and supporting services from external software suppliers;
- h) managing the user support services, resolving incidents and problems;
- i) ensuring the reliability and continuity of services of the ICT infrastructure and IT solutions;
- j) monitoring and evaluating the ICT infrastructure and its performance in compliance with external requirements;
- k) regularly assessing the security protections of the IT infrastructure and solutions and improving them in line with the constant technical improvements of the products;
- l) aligning constantly the IT solutions replicated in the Disaster Recovery Site with their instance running in the operational site;
- m) following innovations related to IT, evaluating new solutions and implementing them in the Agency.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Head of Unit, the main duties related to this post are:

- manage the implementation of ICT security improvements, including the objectives defined in the ICT Security Plan of the agency covering i.e. ICT Systems Security Policy Management; ICT Systems Security Architecture; ICT Systems Security & Compliance; ICT Systems Security Incident Management; ICT System accreditation management; ICT security vulnerability management; cloud security management; identity and access management; malware defences; network security management; data protection and secure software development

- advise System Owners, ICT service providers and project managers on the ICT security approach, methodology, security requirements, design of security controls and perform compliance reviews
- perform information security risk assessments and serving as the internal ICT auditor for information security processes and technical environments (classified and unclassified)
- monitor compliance with the agency's information security policies and procedures among staff, contractors, other agencies, and other third parties, and referring problems to appropriate units managers or administrators
- develop, update and maintain the ICT security policy framework in line with relevant security regulations
- participate in the system specifications and development process in order to define and enforce security requirements;
- ensure that security logging and monitoring activities take place within the relevant environments of different classification levels and ensure they operate in the most effective way and in line with relevant regulations
- coordinate relevant response to security incidents in line with the agency's Cybersecurity Incident Response Plans
- define ICT security awareness program and manage execution to all relevant users of the agency
- ensure correct configuration of security components of various systems, together with the System and Network Administrators;
- liaise with European institutions in the relevant mission scope, with the Frontex Security Officer and Data Protection Office concerning all ICT relevant matters;
- organize and coordinate the execution of security tests, analyse the results of ICT security tests and associated recommendations, establish corrective plans at the level of ICT Unit, and follow up the implementation of countermeasures;
- ensure review of all changes, prior to implementation, to validate the realized security requirements, to ensure they do not compromise the security of the agency's assets

The remuneration is expressed in EUR, after the compulsory deductions set out in the Staff Regulations or in any implementing regulations is weighted by the correction coefficient for Poland (currently 71.1). It can be paid either in EUR or in PLN according to a fixed exchange rate (currently 4.2515 PLN/EUR).

The remuneration of the staff members, the correction coefficient and the exchange rate are updated annually before the end of each year, with retroactive effect from 1 July, in accordance with Annex XI of the Staff Regulations.

Staff pays an EU tax at source and deductions are also made for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance. Salaries are exempt from national taxes. The rate of the solidarity levy is 6 %.

The headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities is effective as of 1 November 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities may provide the following main benefits to Frontex expatriate staff⁷:

- (a) reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child (as from the age of 2.5 years) attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;
- (b) reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;
- (c) reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

Additionally, this agreement foresees that (an accredited) European School will be set-up in Warsaw in the future to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

⁶ Specific conditions about grading are defined on the title page of the Vacancy Notice. For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) the classification in grade and step should be established in line with Article 55 of the CEOS.

⁷ Staff of non-Polish nationality and non-permanent residents.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service and to additional days of leave depending on the grade and age. Moreover, two and a half leave days are granted every year to the staff members entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance for the purpose of visiting their home country. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, etc.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

A contract of employment will be offered for a period of five years, with a probationary period of nine months. The contract may be renewed.

Frontex requires selected candidates to undergo a vetting procedure executed by the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship in order to obtain a personnel security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post/position. For this post, the required level of clearance is specified on the title page of the Selection Notice. Candidates who currently hold a valid personnel security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. The National Security Authority of the candidate shall provide Frontex, with an opinion or a personnel security clearance in accordance with relevant national legislation. In case selected candidates do not currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required personnel security clearance or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.

9. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

Frontex ensures that applicants' personal data are processed in accordance with Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

Please note that Frontex will not return applications to applicants. This is due, in particular, to the confidentiality and security of such data.

The legal basis for the selection procedures of temporary staff are defined in the CEOS⁸.

The purpose of processing personal data is to enable to properly carry out selection procedures.

The selection procedure is conducted under the responsibility of the Human Resources Sector of the Human Resources and Security Unit, within the Corporate Governance of Frontex (HR Sector). The controller for personal data protection purposes is the Head of the Human Resources and Security Unit.

Applicants have the right to request access to and rectification or restriction of processing concerning the data subject or, where applicable, the right to object to processing or the right to data portability. In case of identification data, applicants can rectify those data at any time during the procedure. In the case of data related to the eligibility or selection criteria, the right of rectification can only be exercised by submitting/uploading a new application and it cannot be exercised after the closing date for submission of applications. Withdrawal of a consent to such data processing operations would result in exclusion of the candidate from the recruitment and selection procedure.

Should an applicant have any query concerning the processing of his/her personal data and has substantiated request, he/she shall address them to the HR Sector at jobs@frontex.europa.eu or Frontex Data Protection Officer at dataprotectionoffice@frontex.europa.eu.

Applicants may have recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu).

10. APPEAL PROCEDURE

If an applicant considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision related to the selection procedure, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, laid down by Council Regulation (EEC, Euratom, ECSC No 259/68)⁹, mentioning the reference number of the selection procedure, at the following address:

Frontex
Human Resources Sector
Plac Europejski 6
00-844 Warsaw
Poland

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the applicant is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Applicants also have a possibility to complain to the European Ombudsman. Please note that complaints made to the European Ombudsman have no effect on the time period laid down in Article 91 of the Staff Regulations. Note also, that under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.

11. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Note: It is required to upload the digital application form saved in its original electronic dynamic PDF format (not scanned). Do not use any e-mail communication to submit your application (for exceptional circumstances see point 6 below) - such an application will be automatically disregarded and will not be recorded and further processed.

Frontex Application Form is to be downloaded (as a dynamic PDF form) from Frontex website under the link provided next to the Reference Number of the post/position. This digital application form is specifically created only for this selection procedure (and shall not be reused for another procedure).

The Frontex Application Form must:

⁹ OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p. 15.

- Be opened in a PDF reader in a MS Windows equipped computer - the recommended version of the PDF reader is Adobe Acrobat Reader DC (version 2017.009.20044. You may download a free version here: <https://get.adobe.com/uk/reader/>).
- Not be manipulated or altered. The form is digitally signed and protected against any manipulation or changes. Therefore, applicants shall not try to manipulate and/or alter it - in such a case the digital signature will disappear and the application form will become invalid for subsequent processing resulting in an automatic rejection of such submission.
