

EEAS Vacancy Notice Administrator

Deputy Head of Division – European Peace Facility - ISP.5 Division

(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from Member States: AD09)

Job n. 339775

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The European Peace Facility Division (ISP.5) is a new division within the Integrated Approach for Security and Peace Directorate (ISP), which will ensure the overall management of the European Peace Facility (EPF). The EPF aims at providing the EU with an off-budget fund for at least the duration of the next Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) to finance all Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) operational actions having military or defence implications which the Council may decide. The Division will be responsible for the planning/programming, identification and operational management of assistance measures as well as for the preparation and negotiation of relevant Council decisions. It will also ensure political and operational reporting functions, including on EPF equipment planning and monitoring. The Division will work closely with relevant EEAS departments, Commission and Council services.

We propose:

The position of Deputy Head of Division in European Peace Facility Division (ISP.5): Administrator - AD5-AD12.
Candidates from national diplomatic services: AD09.

A challenging position as Deputy Head of ISP.5 Division to work under the authority of the Head of Division and assist him/her in the build-up of the new ISP.5 Division, managing its staff and workload. He/she will work in close cooperation with colleagues in the Directorate for Integrated Approach for Security and Peace at the EEAS, as well as all other relevant EEAS, Commission, EPF administrators and EU Member States counterparts.

The main responsibilities are as follows:

to assist and deputize the Head of Division to:

- set up the Division, by planning and preparing all necessary recruitments; organising the work within the division, establishing internal working methods and external partnerships with other EEAS stakeholders, Commission services and relevant counterparts in Member States;
- manage, organise and coordinate the activities of the Division and its staff members; translating EU policies and priorities into specific goals, tasks and internal procedures;
- monitor and ensure the timely implementation of goals and tasks assigned to the Division, including under tight schedule;
- motivate, coach and lead a multinational team, ensure efficient staff and personnel administration of the Division;

- represent the EEAS in contacts with Member States, third countries as well as EU institutions, international organisations and other stakeholders as necessary;
- communicate EU policies through proactive communications planning and engaging in public speaking at seminars and conferences.

We look for:

We are looking for an experienced, dynamic, proactive, flexible and motivated colleague ideally with an APF and / or Athena mechanism knowledge and expertise to support the Head of Division in the efficient overall operation of division activities and to contribute to the build-up of the new ISP.5 Division.

Legal basis:

The vacancy is to be filled in in accordance with the following articles of the Staff regulations¹ (SR): Article 29(1)(a) SR and Article 98 SR; Article 29(1)(b) SR ; Article 29(1)(c) SR

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA²

Further to the conditions set out in Article 28 SR and 12 CEOS, candidates must:

1. be a permanent official of the Union, or a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) CEOS applies, or staff from a national diplomatic service of a EU Member State, or a laureate of an EPSO competition who is on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 SR.
2. have the capacity to work in languages of the CFSP and external relations necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset;
3. have at least 3 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations;

Also, in order to satisfy the requirements set out in Article 12 of the CEOS, candidates from national diplomatic services must:

4. possess a level of education
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more, OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years³.
5. have gained at least 10 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-years diploma or after obtaining the three-years diploma and the one year relevant professional experience
6. candidates from national diplomatic services and current temporary agents according to Article 2(e) CEOS must be able to return to active service in their Member State after the end of their period of service to EEAS. Furthermore, they must be in a position to serve during the full duration of their assignment within the maximum duration of engagement in the EEAS, as foreseen in Article 50b(2) SR and the Council Decision of 26 July 2010 (2010/427/EU).

Clarifications:

- The present position is classified, according to section A of Annex I SR, as a post of Administrator. Candidates who are EU officials in the function group AD must therefore occupy at the moment of the application (or have occupied as the last post before their change in administrative status⁴) a post of "Administrator" grades AD5-AD12 or be an EU official in the function group AST who is on the list drawn up according to Article 45a (c) SR ("certification procedure").

² All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post.

- Officials assigned according to Article 30 of the annex XIII SR to the type of post "Senior Administrator in transition" (AD14) or "Administrator in transition" (AD13) can apply for posts which correspond to the type of post of Administrator. If selected, she/he will be transferred in the interest of the service. This transfer in the interest of the service will not modify the Type of Post of the person. Transfers in the interest of the service under Article 7 SR are only possible within the same Institution; therefore EU officials AD13 and AD14 from other Institutions are not eligible.
- Candidates who at the moment of the application are EU officials, independently of their administrative status, cannot request to be recruited as temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, i.e. staff seconded from national diplomatic services of the Member States
- Applications from officials currently serving in a Delegation are, in principle, not eligible and may only be considered in the interest of the service or in case of an application for a higher type of post ("career progression"). This is due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources, given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications.
- "Career progression" refers to applications for a higher type of post according to Annex I SR. In this case it refers to EU officials in the function group AST who are on the list drawn up according to Article 45a(c) SR ("certification procedure") and apply for their first AD post.
- In order to be considered as a candidate from national diplomatic service in the sense of Article 98 SR, such candidates shall provide at the moment of their application a certificate from their national diplomatic service which will clearly state that they are staff from national diplomatic service, as well as a guarantee of "immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service to the EEAS" in accordance with Article 50b(2) CEOS.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Candidates should:

- have an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication in a complex, multicultural environment;
- have an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, international organisations and EU Member States;
- have strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- have excellent knowledge of external relations, internal policies and functioning of the Union;
- have the ability to deputise for the Head of Division with regard to both managerial and representational responsibilities, and the ability to lead and motivate teams;
- have experience and knowledge of CFSP and CSDP related issues and in particular of the security/military dimension of EU external action and instruments;
- have knowledge and/or proven experience in the key areas of crisis management and response;
- have knowledge of the EU financial and operational support to CFSP/CSDP (Athena Mechanism, African Peace Facility etc);
- have a good working proficiency in English and French.

⁴ In accordance with Article 35 SR

Furthermore the following would be strong assets:

- experience of working in an Embassy, a Delegation (or equivalent in an international organisation);
- experience of working in a team in multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural environment;
- experience of negotiations;
- experience on CSDP related issues in particular capacity building activities;
- experience on security and defence cooperation and provision of support to partners;
- a creative approach to problem-solving;
- capacity to work and communicate under time constraints in an international diplomatic and multilingual environment;
- knowledge of EU languages other than English and French.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

⁵ The basic salaries offered by the EU institutions are set out in Article 66 of the Staff Regulations. The current level, can be accessed via the link: https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:52018XC1214\(01\)&from=EN&from=EN)

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE⁶

High degree of mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies, and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply to the post of "2020/127– HQ (AD) – Deputy Head of Division – ISP.5".

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link from 04 May 2020. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/documents/curriculum-vitae>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs (issued within the past 6 months) confirming their membership of a diplomatic service, the Ministry's support for the candidate's application for this post, as well as mentioning the guarantee of reinstatement of applicants after a possible contract with the EEAS. If candidates are unable to provide this document from their Ministry, their application will be deemed ineligible.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 04/05/2020 to 02/06/2020 at 12.00 midday (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedure, please use the following email address:

EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

⁶ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.htm

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a re-assignment.
