

Vacancy notice 2020-162 HQ (AD) – Head of Division INTCEN.2

EEAS Vacancy Notice – Head of Division INTCEN.2 – Support/Open Sources Research

Type of post "Head of Unit or equivalent"

EU Staff Members – AD 9-14– Candidates from the Member States – AD 12

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The EU Intelligence and Situation Centre (EU INTCEN) is the exclusive civilian intelligence function of the EU, providing in-depth analysis for decision makers in all EU Institutions. As such, INTCEN is a directorate in the EEAS that is directly attached to the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the European Commission. It comprises an Intelligence Analysis Division and an Support/Open Source Research Division.

INTCEN's Support /Open Sources Research Division (INTCEN.2) explores and exploits in depth a wide range of open sources on topics of special importance to the EU systematically using advanced research and analytical tools and services. The INTCEN. 2 Division, provides support to the Analysis Division (INTCEN.1), with products to be integrated in the intelligence analyses ("all sources approach")

We propose:

The position of Head of Division Support/Open Source Research– INTCEN.2 Division.

Under the authority of the Director of the EU Intelligence and Situation Centre, the Head of Division holds the overall management responsibility for the activities of the Division.

The main responsibilities are as follows:

- Manage, organise and coordinate the activities of the Division and its staff members; organise the work within the division, establish internal working methods and external partnerships with other EEAS stakeholders, other EU institutions, and relevant counterparts in Member States.
- Define the strategy and policies of the Division, on the basis of the EU INTCEN's strategy and instructions received from the Director.
- Establish and follow up the Division's organisation. Ensure effective distribution of duties, responsibilities and tasks to the staff on the basis of work demands, taking into account objective and progress.
- Supervise the work of the Division, including quality control and meeting deadlines. Report to the hierarchy on results achieved.

- Manage the staff of the Division (job descriptions, selection, appraisal, promotion proposals, skills gaps identification, training, coaching, advice, encouragement, etc.).
- Ensure open source intelligence production and support to the analysis.
- Review and authorise OSINT reports drafted by the Division.
- Ensure resources are used in the most efficient, effective and economic manner..
- Encourage methodological innovation in the Division, including the use of new tools and training in the area of OSINT and SOCMINT collection.
- Develop cooperation with open source research sections of EU Member States' national intelligence services.
- Represent INTCEN.2 and EU INTCEN in international fora when required.

This position is a Head of Division Post (AD9-14). Candidates from the national administration of Member States would be recruited at AD 12 level.

The place of employment is Brussels. The post in principle will be for a four year duration and involves travel.

Legal Basis

The vacancy is to be filled in in accordance with the following articles of the Staff regulations¹ (SR): Article 29(1)(a) SR and Article 98 SR; and Article 29(1)(b) SR.

We look for:

Eligibility Criteria²

General

Further to the conditions set out in Art 28 of the Staff Regulations (SR) or Art 12 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS), candidates must:

1. be permanent officials of the Union institutions, or temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) applies, or staff from national administration of the Member States;
2. have the capacity to work in languages of the CFSP and external relations necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would also be an asset;
3. have three years' management experience, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post;³
4. have at least six years' proven, pertinent external relations experience - for staff from national services this experience must have been gained from working in a national administration of one of the Member States;

¹ Staff Regulations of Officials (SR) and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS). For reference, see

<https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?qid=1570023902133&uri=CELEX:01962R0031-20190101>

² All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post.

- SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR EU OFFICIALS AND TEMPORARY AGENTS FROM NATIONAL DIPLOMATIC SERVICES TO WHOM ARTICLE 2(E) OF THE CEOS APPLIES ("EU STAFF")

1. EU staff members (i.e. EU officials, and temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies) applying for this post must be AD9–AD14:⁴

EU staff members (i.e. EU officials, and temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies) at AD 8 are eligible to apply if they have at least 2 years seniority at that grade.

In the event of a successful application, EU staff members at AD9-14 will be appointed at the same grade. EU staff members at AD8 will be promoted to AD9.

2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources, given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, applications from staff members currently serving in a Delegation and who are not in rotation in 2020, are, in principle, not eligible and may only be considered in the interest of the service or in case of an application for a higher type of post (further on, "career progression").⁵

3. candidates who at the moment of the application are EU officials, independently of their administrative status (including officials on leave on personal grounds), cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS, i.e. staff seconded from national administration of the Member States.

In the case of candidatures from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, provided they are eligible for the post, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment in accordance with Articles 35 (a) and 40 of the Staff Regulations.

- SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR CANDIDATES FROM THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION OF THE MEMBER STATES

In line with Art 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from the national administration of Member States of the Union must:

1. possess a level of education
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more, OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years.⁶
2. have gained at least 12 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience;

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

⁶ The minimum of one year of professional experience required under (b) counts as an integral part of the above qualification and cannot be included in the professional experience required under point 3.

Candidates from national services and current temporary agents according to Article 2(e) CEOS must be able to return to active service in their Member State after the end of their period of service to EEAS. The candidate shall provide a statement issued by her or his Ministry confirming their membership of a national administration, and indicating the post applied for as well as mentioning the guarantee of reinstatement of applicants after a possible contract with the EEAS. If candidates are unable to provide this document from their Ministry, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Furthermore, candidates from national administration and current temporary agents according to Article 2(e) CEOS must be in a position to serve during the full duration of their assignment within the maximum duration of engagement in the EEAS, as foreseen in Article 50b(2) SR and the Council Decision of 26 July 2010 (2010/427/EU).

3. Candidates from a national administration of the Member States should be in active employment in their service at the moment of the application.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Candidates should:

- Have at least ten years of professional experience of intelligence or security related matters gained within an EU Member State organisation and/or in the EU institutions.
- Have at least five years' experience in working on Open Sources intelligence (both regional and horizontal desirable), with a sound knowledge of current methodology and related resources.
- Have a very good understanding of the EU's CFSP, CSDP and other external relations policies.
- Have a very good understanding of the EEAS and of the internal and inter-institutional procedures, together with in-depth knowledge of EU decision-making processes.
- Have proven experience in leading and motivating teams, particularly in a multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural environment and be able to demonstrate the capacity to manage upwards.
- Have good teamwork and interpersonal skills; capacity to promote collaborative approaches within and outside of the team.
- Have a working proficiency in English and French.

Furthermore the following would be considered strong assets:

- Experience in working in a multi-national environment (especially in an EU context).

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

If the successful candidate is from a national administration and subject to successfully undergoing a medical examination to ensure that she or he is physically fit to perform her/his duties, she or he will be offered a temporary contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned to the usual date of mobility at Headquarters (currently 31 August each year). The conditions of appointment will be those laid down in the CEOS for temporary agents of AD12.

In accordance with Article 6(11) of Council Decision 427/2010, each Member State shall provide its staff officials who will become temporary agents in the EEAS under Article 2(e) of the CEOS with a guarantee of immediate re-instatement at the end of the period of service to the EEAS.

All newly engaged temporary staff are required to complete successfully a probationary period of 9 months. A management probationary period of the same duration is also required.

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

Brussels (Belgium)

POST AVAILABLE: 01/09/2020.

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The successful candidate will be required to undergo security vetting if he/she does not already hold EU SECRET level security clearance, in accordance with the relevant security provisions.

Successful candidates from the Member States will be required to make a declaration of their commitment to act independently in the public interest and a declaration of any interests which might be considered prejudicial to their independence.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The European External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

PROCEDURE⁷

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/documents/curriculum-vitae>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a recent statement by their Ministry (issued within the past 6 months) confirming their membership of a national administration.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 24 August at 12.00 midday (Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

⁷ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.htm

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: cca-secretariat@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel (the Consultative Committee on Appointments) can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the AIPN, who will make the final selection.

Shortlisted candidates might be invited to an Assessment Centre.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
