2. CABINET OF THE EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

Mission

Under the supervision of the Head of Cabinet (HoCAB), the Cabinet of the Executive management (CAB) exercises an advisory function on most prominent strategic areas based on the contributions of Cabinet advisors with dedicated portfolios such as transformation of the Agency, interoperability and legislative works, law enforcement cooperation, coast guard cooperation, capacity and operational development, international and inter-institutional cooperation or relations with the Host Member State. In performing their tasks, the Cabinet advisors behave as the Cabinet “business partners” of directors of Divisions.

In addition, the Cabinet ensures a coordination function for the day-to-day performance of Executive management tasks. It provides consistency in the exchanges between Executive management and Frontex external stakeholders, in particular with Poland as the Host Member State. As the guardian of the Executive management calendar, the CAB ensures that strategic priorities are reflected in the planning and preparation of missions, internal and external meetings and events or discussions with Executive management.

The CAB shall ensure that decision-making procedures (see Title II, Section 6) are properly implemented and that effect is given to the deputising rules (Title II, Section 2). It ensures the necessary coordination between Divisions during the preparatory stages as well as compliance with the rules for the submission of documents. As a principle, all documents submitted to Executive management shall be routed via the relevant Cabinet advisors and then via the head of Cabinet.

The head of Cabinet activates the “absence mode” of Executive management, notifies all Frontex entities accordingly and informs who is deputised and who is deputy (see Title II, Section 1).

Main tasks

- acting as an interface with the Frontex entities, the CAB keeps track of deadlines in relation to the Executive management activity. It anticipates any possible difficulty or emerging priority in order to facilitate access to Executive management wherever deemed necessary;
- as a business partner, advising on and monitoring the implementation of ED Decisions;
- maintaining the diary of Executive management;
- supervising the daily coordination of cross-Divisional work and follow-up thereof;
- ensuring a smooth, timely and clear internal communication flow between Executive management and Frontex entities;
- communicating with internal and external entities on issues at the strategic or policy level;
- should the crisis management mode be activated in absence of both executive director and deputy executive director, assisting the deputy to reach Executive management (see Title II, Sections 1.2(e) and 2, paragraph 1.3).

To perform those tasks, the Cabinet is supported by three offices: (i) Brussels Office; (ii) Registration Office, and (iii) Management Board and Cross-Divisional Secretariat.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Senior Policy Officer is responsible for:

- supporting the Cabinet in ensuring the proper implementation of the decision-making processes within the Agency, involving cooperation with internal and external stakeholders;

- monitoring the developments as regards the relevant EU policy areas and proposing to the Cabinet Management recommendations and action points on this basis;
- supporting the Cabinet in monitoring the implementation and execution of the Executive Management's decisions;
- based on contributions from internal stakeholders, preparing briefing notes and speaking points for the Executive Management meetings and missions;
- supporting the Cabinet in coordinating the Agency's cooperation with and contribution to the Management Board workings;
- supporting the Cabinet in coordinating the cooperation of the Agency's entities with the Data Protection Officer and the Fundamental Rights Officer;
- supporting the Cabinet Management on issues related to Frontex cooperation with Poland as Host Member State as well as other Member States hosting Frontex decentralized structures;
- contributing to internal policies, guidelines and best practices of horizontal nature, in particular in the area of cooperation with the Management Board;
