

EEAS Vacancy Notice Administrator

Policy Officer - European Correspondent

(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from national diplomatic services: AD07)

Job n. 258666

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The office of the Deputy Secretary-General for Political Affairs/Political Director supports the DSG in his political work and regularly liaises with relevant EEAS services, the Cabinet of the HR/VP, as well as EU institutions and Member States. The European Correspondent of the EEAS operates under the responsibility of the DSG and performs a number of horizontal duties in support to the EEAS and the HR/VP.

We propose:

The position of Policy Officer - European Correspondent, situated in the Office of the Deputy Secretary-General for Political Affairs/Political Director.
Administrator: AD5-AD12.
Candidates from national diplomatic services: AD07.

The function of European Correspondent is embedded in the Office of the DSG for Political Affairs/Political Director and is assisted by one or more deputies as required. The European Correspondents' team closely supports the DSG in carrying out his functions while providing assistance to other EEAS services and the HR/VP as required.

We look for:

We are seeking a highly motivated candidate with sound political judgement to join a small team that works in a very political and fast-paced environment. The post involves regular travelling.

The European Correspondent (together with one or more deputies) provides policy advice and support to the DSG/Political Director in carrying out his functions and activities, particularly with respect to informal EU Political Directors' meetings, Political Dialogue and Strategic Dialogue meetings at Political Directors' level as well as bilateral meetings with third countries.

The European Correspondent serves as the EEAS focal point for the network of European Correspondents of Member States and also regularly liaises with EEAS services, the Cabinet of the HR/VP, EU institutions and representatives of third countries and international organisations.

The European Correspondent is involved in horizontal policy coordination within the EEAS, notably ensuring the advance planning of political dialogue commitments at ministerial level and liaising with the rotating presidency, as well as in the internal policy formulation process, a.o. by providing policy advice on draft working papers, communications and external correspondence as required.

The European Correspondent prepares the informal meetings of EU Foreign Ministers (Gymnich) and ensures coordination inter alia of high-level ministerial events involving the participation of the HR/VP (in particular, G7 meetings and the UNGA ministerial week).

Legal basis:

The vacancy is to be filled in in accordance with the following articles of the Staff regulations¹ (SR): Article 29(1)(a) SR and Article 98 SR; Article 29(1)(b) SR; Article 29(1)(c) SR

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA²

Further to the conditions set out in Article 28 SR and 12 CEOS, candidates must:

1. be a permanent official of the Union, or a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) CEOS applies, or staff from a national diplomatic service of a EU Member State, or a laureate of an EPSO competition who is on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 SR.
2. have the capacity to work in languages of the CFSP necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset;
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations;

Also, in order to satisfy the requirements set out in Article 12 of the CEOS, candidates from national diplomatic services must:

4. possess a level of education
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more, OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years³.
5. have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-years diploma or after obtaining the three-years diploma and the one year relevant professional experience
6. candidates from national diplomatic services and current temporary agents according to Article 2(e) CEOS must be able to return to active service in their Member State after the end of their period of service to EEAS. Furthermore, they must be in a position to serve during the full duration of their assignment within the maximum duration of engagement in the EEAS, as foreseen in Article 50b(2) SR and the Council Decision of 26 July 2010 (2010/427/EU).

Clarifications:

- The present position is classified, according to section A of Annex I SR, as a post of Administrator. Candidates who are EU officials in the function group AD must therefore occupy at the moment of the application (or have occupied as the last post before their change in administrative status⁴) a post of "Administrator" grades AD5-AD12 or be an EU official in the function group AST who is on the list drawn up according to Article 45a (c) SR ("certification procedure").
- Officials assigned according to Article 30 of the annex XIII SR to the type of post "Senior Administrator in transition" (AD14) or "Administrator in transition" (AD13) can apply for posts which correspond to the type of post of Administrator. If selected, she/he will be transferred in the interest of the service. This transfer in the interest of the service will not modify the Type of Post of the person. Transfers in the interest of the service under Article

² All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post.

⁴ In accordance with Article 35 SR

7 SR are only possible within the same Institution; therefore EU officials AD13 and AD14 from other Institutions are not eligible.

- Candidates who at the moment of the application are EU officials, independently of their administrative status, cannot request to be recruited as temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, i.e. staff seconded from national diplomatic services of the Member States
- Applications from officials currently serving in a Delegation are, in principle, not eligible and may only be considered in the interest of the service or in case of an application for a higher type of post ("career progression"). This is due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources, given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications.
- "Career progression" refers to applications for a higher type of post according to Annex I SR. In this case it refers to EU officials in the function group AST who are on the list drawn up according to Article 45a(c) SR ("certification procedure") and apply for their first AD post.
- In order to be considered as a candidate from national diplomatic service in the sense of Article 98 SR, such candidates shall provide at the moment of their application a certificate from their national diplomatic service, as well as a guarantee of "immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service to the EEAS" in accordance with Article 50b(2) CEOS.
- Competition EPSO laureates may express their interest for this job, provided that they meet the eligibility requirements set out at points 3 and 4 above. Their candidatures will be considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by article 29 (1) (a) and article 98 SR or article 29 (1) (b) SR. Should a competition laureate be selected for this job, she/he will be subject to the same obligations of mobility as other EEAS staff members.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Candidates should:

- have an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication in a complex, multicultural environment;
- have an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, international organisations and EU Member States;
- have strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- have excellent knowledge of external relations, internal policies and functioning of the Union;
- have in particular an extensive and proven experience and knowledge of the EU's CFSP;
- have excellent communication skills and the ability to establish and maintain a network of contacts both within and outside the EEAS;
- have the ability to communicate clearly on complex issues and the capacity to perform with accuracy and in a flexible manner a diversity of tasks in a complex institutional environment;
- have strong service attitude;
- be a flexible team player.

Furthermore, the following would be considered strong assets:

- experience of working in a team in multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural environment;
- experience of negotiations;
- knowledge of EU languages other than English and French.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR CANDIDATES FROM NATIONAL DIPLOMATIC SERVICES

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The External Action Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE⁶

High degree of mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies, and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply to the post of "2020/216 – HQ (AD) – Policy Officer - European Correspondent".

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

⁵ The basic salaries offered by the EU institutions are set out in Article 66 of the Staff Regulations. The current level, can be accessed via the link: https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:52018XC1214\(01\)&from=EN&from=EN)

⁶ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.htm

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link from 13/08/2020. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/documents/curriculum-vitae>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs (issued within the past 6 months) confirming the Ministry's support for the candidate's application for this post, as well as mentioning the guarantee of reinstatement of applicants after a possible contract with the EEAS. If candidates are unable to provide this document from their Ministry, their application will be deemed ineligible.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 14/08/2020 to 28/08/2020 04/09/2020 at 12.00 midday (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a re-assignment.
