

Vacancy notice 2020/248– HQ (AD)*EEAS Vacancy Notice Administrator*Administrator – Desk Officer Libya – MENA.3*(EU Staff Members: AD5-12/ Candidates from national diplomatic services: AD07)*Job n. 230263*We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We are a dynamic and inspiring Division of 15 people responsible for the management of the relations with Maghreb (Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia and Libya as well as matters relating to regional cooperation within the Maghreb and under the Union for the Mediterranean). We monitor political developments in the region, carry out policy analysis and formulate new policy initiatives. We coordinate the implementation of the Association Agreements with the three countries concerned and follow and support the UN-led mediation process in Libya, ensuring the coherence of EU policies and instruments, coordinating with the other European institutions as well as with international partners and international organisations. In liaison with the Commission and the EU Delegations, we contribute to multiannual programming of development cooperation with the Maghreb countries.

We propose:

The position of Desk Officer Libya in MENA.3 division: Administrator - AD5-AD12.
Candidates from national diplomatic services: AD07.

A challenging position as co-desk Libya, within a team of three co-desks, that involves numerous contacts internally with other EU institutions and with external counterparts. The position requires sense of initiative and strong commitment, excellent political judgement, excellent drafting skills and genuine teamwork spirit. The work is fast-paced within a politically complex environment, both internally within the EU and externally with the many international actors in Libya, and it includes crisis-response situations. The position will involve periodic missions to the region.

We look for:

We are looking for a highly motivated colleague who, under the authority of the Head of Division, will work within the Libya team. The colleague will also have to be ready to contribute to other horizontal tasks. A post in the Division offers the motivated colleague, who is willing to make the required degree of personal investment, the opportunity to develop a large variety of knowledge and skills within a demanding but intellectually rewarding environment.

Key job components:

- Monitoring and analysis of political, security and economic developments in Libya as well as related developments in relations with other countries in the MENA region and with major international actors;
- Contributing to policy formulation in all relevant areas, including economic, migration and CSDP aspects;
- Contributing to the implementation of the EU policy on Libya;

- Prepare high/senior level meetings and parliamentary contacts;
- Coordinating with other EEAS departments and with the Commission, the Council, and the European Parliament;
- Establishing a network of contacts with the international organisations, non-governmental actors and economic representatives as well as to the extent possible national representatives and civil society;
- Contributing to the daily functioning of the Maghreb division, including preparing correspondence, draft replies to parliamentary questions, briefings for senior management and the political level, participation in staff meetings.

Legal basis:

The vacancy is to be filled in in accordance with the following articles of the Staff regulations<sup>1</sup> (SR): Article 29(1)(a) SR and Article 98 SR; Article 29(1)(b) SR ; Article 29(1)(c) SR

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA<sup>2</sup>

Further to the conditions set out in Article 28 SR and 12 CEOS, candidates must:

1. be a permanent official of the Union, or a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) CEOS applies, or staff from a national diplomatic service of a EU Member State, or a laureate of an EPSO competition who is on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 SR.
2. have the capacity to work in languages of the CFSP necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset;
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations;

Also, in order to satisfy the requirements set out in Article 12 of the CEOS, candidates from national diplomatic services must:

4. possess a level of education
  - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more, OR
  - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years<sup>3</sup>.
5. have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-years diploma or after obtaining the three-years diploma and the one year relevant professional experience
6. candidates from national diplomatic services and current temporary agents according to Article 2(e) CEOS must be able to return to active service in their Member State after the end of their period of service to EEAS. Furthermore, they must be in a position to serve during the full duration of their assignment within the maximum duration of engagement in the EEAS, as foreseen in Article 50b(2) SR and the Council Decision of 26 July 2010 (2010/427/EU).

Clarifications:

- The present position is classified, according to section A of Annex I SR, as a post of Administrator. Candidates who are EU officials in the function group AD must therefore occupy at the moment of the application (or have occupied as the last post before their change in administrative status<sup>4</sup>) a post of "Administrator" grades AD5-AD12 or be an EU

<sup>1</sup> Staff Regulations of Officials (SR) and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS). For reference, see: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?qid=1570023902133&uri=CELEX:01962R0031-20190101> official in the function group AST who is on the list drawn up according to Article 45a (c) SR ("certification procedure").

- Officials assigned according to Article 30 of the annex XIII SR to the type of post "Senior Administrator in transition" (AD14) or "Administrator in transition" (AD13) can apply for posts which correspond to the type of post of Administrator. If selected, she/he will be transferred in the interest of the service. This transfer in the interest of the service will not modify the Type of Post of the person. Transfers in the interest of the service under Article 7 SR are only possible within the same Institution; therefore EU officials AD13 and AD14 from other Institutions are not eligible.
- Candidates who at the moment of the application are EU officials, independently of their administrative status, cannot request to be recruited as temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, i.e. staff seconded from national diplomatic services of the Member States
- Applications from officials currently serving in a Delegation are, in principle, not eligible and may only be considered in the interest of the service or in case of an application for a higher type of post ("career progression"). This is due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources, given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications.
- "Career progression" refers to applications for a higher type of post according to Annex I SR. In this case it refers to EU officials in the function group AST who are on the list drawn up according to Article 45a(c) SR ("certification procedure") and apply for their first AD post.
- In order to be considered as a candidate from national diplomatic service in the sense of Article 98 SR, such candidates shall provide at the moment of their application a certificate from their national diplomatic service which will clearly state that they are staff from national diplomatic service, as well as a guarantee of "immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service to the EEAS" in accordance with Article 50b(2) CEOS.
- Competition EPSO laureates may express their interest for this job, provided that they meet the eligibility requirements set out at points 3 and 4 above. Their candidatures will be considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by article 29 (1) (a) and article 98 SR or article 29 (1) (b) SR. Should a competition laureate be selected for this job, she/he will be subject to the same obligations of mobility as other EEAS staff members.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Candidates should:

- have an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication in a complex, multicultural environment;
- have an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, international organisations and EU Member States;
- have strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- have high motivation, resilience, flexibility and good interpersonal skills and willingness to work in good team spirit while remaining able to work independently;
- have knowledge and/or proven experience of the region;
- have excellent knowledge of external relations, internal policies and functioning of the Union;
- have experience and knowledge of CFSP and CSDP-related issues as well as in crisis response;
- have excellent ability to establish and maintain a network of contacts both within and outside the EEAS;
- have experience of preparation and participation in high level events;

- have knowledge and/or proven experience in the key areas of programming and project management;
- have the ability to communicate clearly on complex issues and the capacity to perform with accuracy and in a flexible manner a diversity of tasks in a complex institutional environment;
- have good organisation capacity, strong sense of initiative and ability to work under strict deadlines;
- be fluent in English and have good knowledge of French (both orally and in writing);
- be a flexible team player.

Furthermore:

- experience of foreign affairs in the region;
- knowledge of Arabic
- experience of working in an Embassy, a Delegation (or equivalent in an international organisation);
- experience of working in a team in multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural environment; and
- experience of negotiations,

would be considered as assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR CANDIDATES FROM NATIONAL DIPLOMATIC SERVICES

In accordance with Article 50b CEOS, if the successful candidate is from a national diplomatic service, she or he will be offered a contract as temporary agent under Article 2(e)CEOS at the level AD 7 <sup>5</sup> for a maximum period of four years which can be renewed for a maximum period of four years.

In accordance with Article 6(11) of Council Decision 427/2010, each Member State shall provide its officials who have become temporary agents in the EEAS under Article 2(e) of the CEOS with a guarantee of immediate re-instatement at the end of the period of service to the EEAS.

All newly engaged temporary staff members are required to complete successfully a probationary period of 9 months.

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

Brussels, Belgium

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service, which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact (EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu) in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure in equality of opportunities with other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1d.4 of the Staff Regulations.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE<sup>6</sup>

High degree of mobility is a fundamental part of EEAS human resources policies, and is required by the EEAS Council Decision. Candidates should be aware that, accordingly, it is not generally in the interests of the service for EEAS Staff Members to apply for jobs which are essentially the same or similar to their current post.

The procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Candidates may apply to the post of "2020/248– HQ (AD) – Desk Officer Libya – MENA.3".

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system:

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link from 15 October 2020. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/documents/curriculum-vitae>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs (issued within the past 6 months) confirming their membership of a diplomatic service, the Ministry's support for the candidate's application for this post, as well as mentioning the guarantee of reinstatement of applicants after a possible contract with the EEAS. If candidates are unable to provide this document from their Ministry, their application will be deemed ineligible.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

<sup>6</sup> Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data\_protection/rights/index\_en.htm

Applications may be made at any point during the period from 15/10/2020 to 06/11/2020 at 12.00 midday (Brussels time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedure, please use the following email address:

EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The selection panel will make a pre-selection on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been pre-selected will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates for a final decision by the relevant Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority may decide to interview the candidates on the final shortlist before taking this decision.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a re-assignment.
