We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative (HR/VP) in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Division "Horizontal coordination and Protocol (BA.01)" is directly attached to the Director General for Budget and Administration (DG BA). The Division is composed by three sectors: BA.01.001 Planning, Programming and Reporting, BA.01.002 Legal and disciplinary matters and BA.01.003 the Protocol Service.

The mission of the Protocol Service Sector is as follows:

- To organise the high-level visits hosted by the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy ("the High Representative") or the EEAS senior management in the EEAS building;
- To organise wider high-level events hosted by the HR/VP at the EEAS or in other venues;
- To manage the meetings' planning and the bookings of meetings' facilities in the Council's buildings for EEAS Chair of Council working groups and other preparatory bodies reporting to the Foreign Affairs Council;
- To liaise in particular with the Protocol, Meetings and Conferences services of the Council and the Commission;
- To advise the High Representative, the EEAS and the EU delegations on any protocol issues;
- To develop a set of internal rules and provide regular training;
- To handle EEAS approval of issuing of EU laissez-passer to EEAS staff and special applicants;
- To prepare and issue Notes Verbales from EEAS HQ as required.

We propose:

The role of the Administrator in this area of the Protocol Service is very visible, including at high level, and includes regular interaction with a wide range of stakeholders such as the HR/VP's Cabinet, EEAS geographical divisions, third countries embassies and Member States representations, security staff, catering services and external contractors.

This post has a fluctuating and irregular workload. High-level events often require presence outside regular working hours at short notice.

We look for:

A dynamic, proactive and highly motivated colleague with very good communication and organisational skills and with a developed sense of service. The successful candidate will also act as a back-up to both the Head of the Sector and other colleagues of the Protocol Service.

- The present position is classified, according to section A of Annex I SR, as a post of Administrator. This is due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources, given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications.
- "Career progression" refers to applications for a higher type of post according to Annex I SR. In this case it refers to EU officials in the function group AST who are on the list drawn up according to Article 45a(c) SR ("certification procedure") and apply for their first AD post.
- In order to be considered as a candidate from national diplomatic service in the sense of Article 98 SR, such candidates shall provide at the moment of their application a certificate from their national diplomatic service which will clearly state that they are staff from national diplomatic service, as well as a guarantee of "immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service to the EEAS" in accordance with Article 50b(2) CEOS.
- Competition EPSO laureates may express their interest for this job, provided that they meet the eligibility requirements set out at points 3 and 4 above. Their candidatures will be considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by article 29 (1) (a) and article 98 SR or article 29 (1) (b) SR.
